

Recital slated

Marye Shuster Lowery will give a vocal recital at 8 p.m., Jan. 19, in Detroit Bible College's Krueger Chapel at 12 Mile and Drake in Farmington Hills.

Ms. Lowery graduated from Wheaton College, Ill., with a major in voice performance. She has studied in Germany and earned a master's in voice at Youngstown State University.

Her recital will be a combination of classical works by Bach, Bussette, R. Vaughan-Williams and sacred songs by Kaiser, Wood and Owens. Tickets are available at the music office by calling 553-7200. General admission is $3 and senior citizens rate is $2.

MCUL hails Hale

Ronald Hale of Farmington has been named director of the Resource and Information section of the Michigan Credit Union League (MCUL). A longtime Farmington resident, Hale has been active for many years as a volunteer for Farmington Parish Credit Union.

College adds music classes for community

Music lessons for children and adults in the community are offered on campus at Detroit Bible College, 35700 West Twelve Mile, Farmington Hills.

The program offers piano, voice and guitar lessons taught by graduates of Detroit Bible College. Instruments can be obtained through the college for use in lessons. There will be yearly recital for persons participating in the classes.

The program is coordinated by Sue Presnell, a 1975 graduate of the college. Ms. Presnell is a certified teacher who has been giving private music instructions for several years.

Joanne Geelhood, a 1976 graduate of the college will teach piano. She has a bachelor's in music from Wittenberg University in Ohio and a master's from University of Michigan.

SHE HAS taught at Mercy College in Detroit, and University of Michigan, Dearborn.

The music faculty of Detroit Bible College is available for supervision and advice.

Voice lessons are offered by Brenda Fuson, a 1979 music degree graduate from the college.

For further information, call Ms. Presnell at 553-7200 or 476-8911.

Ford division realigns

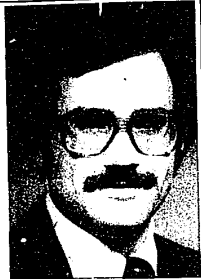

Ford Parts and Service Division's marketing activity has been realigned to more effectively merchandise Ford and Motorcraft branded automotive replacement parts to primary segments of the aftermarket.

In the realignment, Robert M. Defino of Plymouth has been appointed Dealer Parts Merchandising Department manager and James D. Carey of Farmington has been named manager of the Independent Channel Merchandising Department.

Concurrently, David P. Richardson of Birmingham has been appointed the division's advertising manager, replacing Robert J. Rodriguez who recently was named manager of the division's Cincinnati District Office.

Defino will direct the activities of the car and light truck, heavy truck and accessories merchandising sections.

Named personnel officer

Farmington Hills resident Michael R. Murray has been promoted to personnel officer at Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit. Murray is a graduate of Central Michigan University and Ball State University.
