Oyster shuckers vying for state championship

The State of Maryland is extending an invitation to all Michigan oyster shuckers to vie for the title "Michigan Champion Oyster Shucker." The winner will receive a free trip to the national finals in Leonardtown, Md., next October, compliments of the State of Maryland.

In case the shuckers want to put their style up against a real world champion, Maryland is bringing in Cornelius Mackall, 31, of Prince Frederick, Md. He won the 1976-77 world championship in Galway, Ireland, opening 12 of the tasty mollusks in less than one minute.

Mackall will demonstrate his skill at all three contests in metropolitan Detroit.

The contests, open to the public, will be held as two preliminaries and a final, as follows:

Monday, Jan. 21, 5:30 p.m., at Gandy Dancer restaurant, 401 Depot Street, Ann Arbor.

Tuesday, Jan. 22, 5:30 p.m., at River Crab restaurant, on the St. Clair River two miles north of St. Clair.

Wednesday, Jan. 23, 5:30 p.m., at Charley's Raw Bar & Seafood restaurant in Hotel Pontchartrain in downtown Detroit.

ANYONE WISHING to enter the contest may phone Loretta Harris in Detroit at 963-1244.

Maryland's Department of Economic & Community Development is sponsoring the contests to draw attention to its prized Chesapeake Bay and Atlantic Ocean seafood, with oysters and crabs prime products.

They chose to have the contest at the three Chuck Muer seafood restaurants because these restaurants have raw oyster bars and sell about 7½ tons of fresh shellfish per month.

The contests are being held during Maryland Seafood Week in Detroit Jan. 20-25.

Chuck Muer restaurants spotlight Maryland crab

Maryland's famous crab cakes and crab bisque are coming Thursday, Jan. 17, through Jan. 26 to Chuck Muer seafood restaurants.

Every year, the state of Maryland selects a city to show off its Chesapeake Bay and Atlantic Ocean seafood. This year it's Detroit, and Chuck Muer restaurants are cooperating with Maryland in creating special menu items.

"These crab cakes and softshell crabs are real delicacies of eastern seafood, well-known and loved by anyone from the coast," said Chuck Muer.

Other items on the special Maryland Menu are Maryland oysters with crab meat stuffing, broiled bay bluefish and curry Maryland lump crab meat bisque.

Brochures with Maryland seafood recipes are available free at the following participating seafood restaurants as long as the supplies (1,000) last: Charley's Crab, 5498 Crooks Road at I-75 (at Northfield Hilton), Troy; Charley's Raw Bar & Seafood Restaurant, Hotel Pontchartrain, downtown Detroit; Diggers, 30555 Grand River, Farmington Hills; Gandy Dancer, 401 Depot St., Ann Arbor; and River Crab, on River Road, two miles north of St. Clair.
