

5 from Troop 263 get Eagles

Bill Campbell, Phil Davis, Dave Gunderson, Mark Smith and Steve White will be awarded the rank of Eagle, Boy Scouting's highest award, in Court of Honor ceremonies Friday, Jan. 18.

All of the young men are residents of Farmington Hills who belong to Troop

263. Campbell, Davis and White are sophomores at North Farmington High School. Smith and Gunderson are ninth-graders at O.E. Dunckel Junior High School.

Campbell is the 15-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Campbell, of 32215 Ardwick. His community service project, required to attain the rank of Eagle, involved the design, construction, operation and donation of a booth for the Kenbrook Carnival, an annual event staged by Kenbrook Elementary School.

Davis, 15, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis of 32379 Hearthstone. For his service project, he landscaped the grounds of Covenant Baptist Church.

Gunderson, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Gunderson, 33678 Colony Park, put in his 40 hours of required service decorating First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham for Christmas services.

Mark Smith, 14, is the eighth son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith, 28166 Thornybrae, to receive the rank of Eagle Scout. For his community project he worked on the nature trail at Proud Lake.

White, 15, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard White, 32427 Chesterbrook. His service project was completing a 634 foot outdoor directory for the residents of Baptist Manor.

Guest speaker for the evening was Farmington Hills Police Commissioner John Nichols.

Troop 263 was formed in 1961 and meets on Wednesday evenings in Prince of Peace Lutheran Church.

The troop welcomes young men to join in scouting activities by calling Chuck Ceplecka, scoutmaster, at 553-0885.

Gibson will discuss alternative fuels

In conjunction with Farmington Branch American Association of University Women's "Managing Resources for Tomorrow" study, the group will host an open meeting with Harold Gibson speaking on "Alternative Fuels."

His talk begins at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Farmington Hills Community Library on 12 Mile Road.

Gibson, a retired manager of Ethyl Corp. Laboratories in Detroit, holds both a bachelor's and master's degree from the University of Michigan.

While at Ethyl, he was responsible for research on fuels, engines, anti-knock compounds, exhaust emission reduction and other related aspects of fuels and engines.

He will discuss fuels produced from shale, gasohol, tar sands, coal and hydrogen.

He will also talk about costs, difficulty of production, adequate amounts, the impact on environment and energy conservation.

Admission is free.

Membership in the sponsoring group is open to all women with a bachelor degree from an accredited four-year institution. Inquiries will be taken by calling Carol Malzone, 591-0161.

Vocal recital planned Jan. 19

Marilyn Shuster Lowery will give a vocal recital at 8 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 19, in Detroit Bible College, on 12 Mile and Drake roads.

The voice performance major from Wheaton College has studied in Germany and completed a master's degree in voice at Youngstown State University.

Her recital will combine classical art songs by Bach, Buxtehude, and R. Vaughan-Williams, with sacred songs by Kaiser, Wood and Owens.

General admission is $3, or $2 for students and seniors. Ticket reservations can be made by calling the school's music office, 553-7200.
