"We are co-sponsored by the (Farmington Area) Chamber of Commerce and have already gotten help from Ab-sopure Water Co. (donators of the patron cards), Executive Office Supply (printer of the tickets) and others who don't even want to be mentioned," Conroy said.

"Gifts are also coming in from all over for our door prizes," he added.

THOSE WHO give donations up to $9 are designated as "Patrons" and will have their names listed as such in the show program booklet.

Those who give from $10-99 will be designated in the program as "Extra Special Patrons." Donators of $100 or more will be listed as "Century Patrons" and will be named as such in concert programs for the next two years.

Donations sent with the accompanying filled-out blank are to be mailed to Farmington Community Concert Band, Patron Listing Fund Drive, in care of Farmington Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 15, Farmington 48024. Checks are to be made payable to Farmington Community Concert Band.

Conroy calls the donation "a way to say thank you to the band members for their faithfulness and to show them that we appreciate good band music in our community."

ADS FOR THE program book run from $25 for an eighth of a page to $100 for a full page and must be placed before Thursday, Feb. 21, with Marion Daniel. She can be reached by calling 474-1180.

She will also print your name, address and phone number in the a three-line ad in the program book for $10.

Tickets are on sale in Farmington Chamber of Commerce, Farmington Insurance Agency, 33215 Grand River, or can be gotten from any band member.

Maximum capacity in Harrison High School's gym is 2,000, and previous shows have been sold out.

Parking is free. Programs are free. All refreshments will be sold for 50 cents or less.

club circuit

SENIOR CITIZEN SOCIAL CLUB OF FARMINGTON will celebrate its 18th anniversary in March. Members, who meet the second and fourth Friday of every month from noon to 3 p.m., invite others to join the sessions in First United Methodist Church of Farmington, on Grand River and Warner Street.

The second and fourth Friday sessions are for recreational purposes. An off-shoot group of seamstresses meet from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesdays.

In the year of 1979, that group completed 1,250 cancer pads of all sizes that were forwarded to the Michigan Cancer Foundation. A total of 57 lap robes were completed to be given as gifts to nursing homes in the area, and several quilts were completed that year.

"We welcome newcomers," said Ruth Henke speaking for the social club, "whether they want to sew with us or take part in our recreational activities."

DEARBORN STAMP CLUB announces its 45th annual Stamp Exhibition and Bourse, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 26, and from noon to 5 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 27, in Dearborn Youth Center, Michigan and Greenfield avenues.

Club members will display portions of their collections and 15 dealers will offer stamps for sale.

Admission and parking are without charge. Snacks are available.

FARMINGTON AREA NATURALISTS meet at 8 p.m. Monday, Jan. 28, in Farmington Community Center, 24705 Farmington Road.

The program will be the group's annual "Show and Tell" when members and guests share collections, hobbies, crafts, books, and unusual finds.

"Tell us about your latest travels or adventure or anything of interest to a nature loving group," said Margaret Converse, speaking for the Naturalists.

The meeting is open to all persons interested in nature.

CHILDREN WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES hosts its Parents Group at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 31, in Farmington Hills Community Library on 12 Mile.

The informal group meets to discuss concerns that are unique to parents of learning disabled children.

"Parents helping parents is a great way to learn and a refreshing way to communicate," said Peggy George, speaking for the association.

Membership inquiries will be taken by calling Eileen Landry, 851-7158.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA WOMEN'S CLUB meets for lunch at noon Friday, Feb. 1, in the Birmingham home of Mrs. David Gerarduzzi, 2780 E. Indian Mound.

Membership in the group is open to any woman graduate or former woman student of any of the divisions or branches of the university and wives, sisters, mothers and daughters of former students.

Inquiries about membership are welcome and may be made by calling Mrs. Arthur Burgott, 626-2878.

Program for the day will be a silent auction.

President of the group is Dorothy Nielsen, 32357 Bonnet Hill, Farmington.

Co-hostesses for the day are Betty Meiln of Bloomfield Hills, Helen Bohn of Clawson, Carol Hill of Birmingham and Kay Rustad of Bloomfield Hills.

Carneys honored

Josephine and Thomas Carney were the guests of honor at a surprise party arranged to celebrate the Westland residents' 25th wedding anniversary. The couple were married on Jan. 22, 1955 in Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church in Detroit.

The family party, arranged by Mrs. Carney's mother, Hedy Dorrenburg of Farmington, was given in Botsford Inn. Included in the celebration were the couple's five children.

Jenkins renew vows

Roy and Mary Jenkins, who have lived in Farmington Hills for 50 years, renewed the wedding vows they took 60 years ago in a ceremony conducted by Father James Wright in St. Alexander Catholic Church.

The couple were married in Illinois on Jan. 5, 1920, and he retired from the City of Farmington Water Department 17 years ago.

The couple have 12 children, 39 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren.

Relatives and friends gathered for an at-home party to celebrate the event.
