

Library valentine's for whole family

By DENISE MOLL

If you haven't been to the library yet, this month is a good time to start. We've got something to offer every age group and a special Valentine Story Hour for the whole family.

Looking to the future, the Young Adult department is offering a program on home computers at 7 p.m. Feb. 19. Guest speaker Dennis DeMeyer from Computerland will offer a presentation, demonstration and display of various home computers for all who are interested. Join us at the Farmington Hills branch for this intriguing program.

The adult book discussion group continues at the Farmington branch library from 10 a.m. - noon on Thursdays. On Feb. 14 we'll be discussing Fredric Fiach's "Choices: Coping Creatively with Personal Change." The book presents the idea that creativity is a function of the personality that can be cultivated to help us deal with problems and stress and offers techniques for fostering creative thinking. Sound interesting? Join us.

At the Farmington branch library, pre-school children and kindergartners can join a craft activity for Valentine's Day at 10:30 a.m. Feb. 8. At 2 p.m., Feb. 26 we'll "Celebrate Snow" - if there is any - with stories and songs. Children in grades 1 through 6 are invited to our Saturday Matinee at 2 p.m., Feb. 2. We'll be featuring Homer

Price in "Doughnuts," "Winter of the Witch" and "Courage."

THEY CAN ALSO "Be a Good Sport" at 2 p.m. Feb. 16 with films and a "Racing Turtles" game.

At the Farmington Hills library pre-schoolers and kindergartners can attend "E is for Elephant" at 2 p.m. Feb. 4 or a "Red, White and Bye Storyhour" at 10:30 a.m. Feb. 21. Bring a red, white and blue object for show and tell. Children in grades 1 through 6 are invited to make a small bulletin board at 2 p.m. Feb. 9. They'll need to bring fabric to cover the board and border decoration (rickrack, a patch, etc.) To carry on the Valentine spirit, we'll feature films on "Friendship" at 2 p.m. Feb. 23. Bring a friend.

Also for a Valentine's Day, both libraries will offer the annual Valentine Family Story Hour. On Feb. 12 at the Farmington branch and Feb. 14 at the Farmington Hills branch, we'll have a magic show, skit, stories, songs and more for the entire family. Because space is limited, registration is required. Please call 474-7770 (Farmington branch) or 553-0300 (Farmington Hills branch) to reserve your spot. Programs will begin at 7 p.m.

Registration for our second session of winter children's programs will begin Feb. 15. Register in person from 9 - 11 a.m. then by telephone for story hours, cooking classes, craft sessions and more.

In cooperation with the Dante Alighieri Society, the Farmington Branch library will offer Italian classes for elementary school children on Sunday mornings. Register by telephone beginning Feb. 1 by calling 474-7770. Classes begin Feb. 9.
