Cedar Point's Red Garter Saloon as two shows, "Razz Ma Jazz" and "Red, Hot 'N Dixie," feature the popular sounds of New Orleans Bourbon Street. my salary. But, it is wonderful.

"It's like the old Red Garter days. It reminds me of having the lines of people waiting out in front. It's really great playing to a packed house every Sunday."

Talking about the people and the music again, Jacobs is getting wound up, and he talks faster and the smile is back. "Our music is high enthusiasm. The tempes are up and everybody enjoys it. There are smiles on people's faces and I'm trying to think of another word for our music besides happy —

It's just something that keeps the peo-ple's hearts alive."

And if he had his banjo there and his dixieland band, you just know he would break into a fast chorus of "I've Found A New Baby" or maybe "If Your Wore a Tulip."
