

For more formal evenings, she teams a long skirt with the tunic top and may wrap her waist with silk and toss a colorful oblong scarf around her shoulders.

She can combine casual linen slacks with a T-shirt, belt her waist and top it all off with the jacket for honeymoon shopping jaunts and those long, leisurely luncheons.

The Mary McFadden suit and accessories are from the designer's spring collection presented at Saks Fifth Avenue Troy store.

LOVE IS... telling him about Frank...

He'll be glad you did. Because Frank will assure your groom that the tuxedo he selects for that big day will fit like a custom tailored suit. You see, Frank can do that. (He's a custom tailor with years of experience.) When he visits Frank's he won't find part-time, inexperienced employees. He'll be helped personally by Frank or his partner, Tony. Let Jerry Niskar, Tony or Frank show him all the latest styles, featuring Alter Six and many other manufacturers' formals in colors that co-ordinate with your bridal party.

For the newest in men's formal wear and Frank's personal guarantee; a tuxedo that fits perfectly. Why take a chance with your wedding? Go ahead, tell him about Frank... He'll be glad you did.

With a wedding party of six or more groom's tuxedo free of charge.
