

If the results of the first week is any criteria, the junior bowlers at Cloverlanes will set a new mark for charity contributions to the American Lung Association.

More than $1,000 was pledged last Saturday morning and the event still has two weeks to run. Under the format being used, each bowler seeks sponsors who pledge to contribute a fixed amount for each pin knocked down.

Meanwhile, the statewide charity tournament sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors of Michigan has gone over the top again with well over $100,000. The regional roll-offs are about to start and the finals will be held in June at Colonial Lanes in Ann Arbor.

THREE MEMBERS were welcomed in to the 700 club at Westland Bowl during the week and the club membership now is one of the largest in the entire metropolitan area.

This week Mike Lee showed the way in the Little Caesars Classic with a closing 257 in 734. He later was deadlocked at that figure by Bob Pnieliski who closed with games of 255 and 256 for his 734. The third member was Bob Jawor who posted a 720 made possible by a finishing game of 259.

In the ladies division, Julie Zimmerman came to the front again with a consistent series that included games of 199, 192 and 202 for 594.

In another mixed league at Westland, Kathie Plasencia closed with a 243 for a 557 to take center stage.

In the senior citizens loop Bill Flohr was top man with a 277 game in a 410 series.

JOHN BIERKAMP drew a frown from Lady Luck at Garden Lanes when he seemed headed for a perfect game. With 11 strikes in a row while bowling in the St. Vinitus league, he needed only the final one and all eyes were on him. Then, on what seemed like a good pocket hit, he left up the No. 5 pin and had to be content with a 299 and a 684 series.

In the other leagues, Bob Waldo paced the TGIF loop with a 676 and Tom Tanski was high man in the Vinco circuit with a 672.

RUTH KENJORSKI moved in to the winner's circle in the invitational doubles at Merri-Bowl when she posted a 638 that included a middle game of 263. Following her were Mary Mohacsi with 612 and Jan Boyster with 589.

Glenn Neely, a 16-year-old, was high in the Father & Son league with a 608. Some of the real fireworks came here in the Saturday youth league where Fred Young, 11 years old, fired a 604 series and Fred Ringrose was high among the 10-14s in the 112-pound championship match.

Matt Mittelstadt of Andover was a 4-0 winner over Brian Murphy of West

ALTHOUGH SHE DIDN'T win a single game Marion Heath took top honors in the Livonia Ladies Classic with a series total of 514-50-594.

In the individual games Diane Gadsby won the opener with 180-37-217. Teresa Derus took the second with 190-28-218 and Ruth Case won the third with 222-32-254.

THE SENIORS had a great time at Woodland Lanes and when Gay '90s firing ceased, Ralph Starkey had high to tal with 565. and Ray Chamberlain was right behind with 538. Others over the 500 mark were Gordy Staff with 509 and Ken Craft with 505. In the special seniors loop, Tom Jones was high 537.

The high score came when Howard Gutoy paced the midnighters with 617.

IN OTHER GOOD PERFORMANCES George Wells had a 238 in 613 at Plaza Lanes while Norman Maloney was high in the Monday mixed league with 613. Gene Keyandway showed the way in the Canton Classic at Super Bowl with a 247 game and Dave Hopkins had high series with a 535.

The 14-year-old boys had a good time at Plymouth Bowl. Dan Woerner was high with 509, Mike Laffey had a 501 and Mark Dixon a 500.

In the Detroit Bowlerettes loop, Elvira Topfner, four-time bowling queen, showed the way with a 257 in 631 and her Jac-Ro team had games of 1004 and 1048.

Clarkston wins title

WB matmen finish 4th

Seven Clarkston wrestlers reached the final matches during the Greater Oakland Athletic League (GOAL) championship meet, enabling the Wolves to claim the meet victory last Saturday.

Three of Clarkston's finalists were weight class champions. Milford, which finished second, had six matmen in the finals, five of whom were champions.

Clarkston tallied 172½ team points in finishing first. Milford had 138. Waterford Kettering was third (122), West Bloomfield took fourth (102), Rochester fifth (95½) and Bloomfield Hills Andover sixth (46).

West Bloomfield had one champion — Barry Bausano in the 155-pound weight class. Bausano outpointed Claude Gouard of Clarkston, 7-4, in the finals.

Three other Laker wrestlers reached the final match before losing. Andy Tucker lost to Steve Ryan of Kettering, 10-0, in the 112-pound championship match.

Matt Mittelstadt of Andover was a 4-0 winner over Brian Murphy of West Bloomfield in the 119 finals, and Brian Wilcoxson of Milford decided the Lakers' Bob Pettilio, 6-4, for the 126-pound crown.

Clarkston winners were Mike Conway (98-pounds), 4-2 over Kettering's Jeff Peterson; Jeff Miracle (132), 11-1 over Dave Merian of Rochester; and Mike Ogans (145), 7-2 over Rob Penfold of Kettering.

GOAL WRESTLING MEET TEAM FINISH — 1. Clarkston High, 172½; 2. Milford High, 138; 3. Waterford Kettering, 122; 4. West Bloomfield, 102; 5. Rochester High, 95½; 6. Bloomfield Hills Andover, 46.
