Persons up to 18 years of age wishing to join the group's February meeting are asked to call ahead of time to Penny Stairs, 478-9463, to learn what materials to bring.

Kendallarks sing spring

It is not too early to think about spring according to Sara Woollard, president of Kendallarks, a three-part women's chorus in Farmington Hills.

"We are busy preparing for our spring and summer shows," she says, "and it does wonders for the winter doldrums."

The Kendallarks are looking for new members now to join them at Tuesday evening rehearsals in North Farmington Baptist Church.

"We're looking for women who enjoy singing and are 18 years or older," Mrs. Woollard said. "Kendallarks come from every walk of life and range in age from 18 to don't ask."

The group is also taking bookings now for spring shows.

"We can suit the shows for any occasion," she said. "Our shows run from 15 minutes to one hour and we have performed in areas ranging in size from broom closets to auditoriums."

For the past seven years the Kendallarks have performed for Oakland Community College's "Summer Series" on Orchard Ridge Campus, sponsored by Farmington Area Arts Commission.

The Kendallarks concert for the series this year is set for Sunday, July 13. Persons interested in hiring the Kendallarks for a show, or those interested in joining the group are invited to call Mrs. Woollard at 553-0182.

Or, she said, "Newcomers can come over and watch our rehearsals or sing along with us on Tuesday nights."

Rehearsals begin at 8 p.m. in the church on 13 Mile Road, between Orchard Lake and Farmington roads.

3 Flags DAR hosts its 'Good Citizens'

Seven outstanding area teens and two elementary school students were honored by Three Flags Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) at its American History Month meeting.

The high schoolers were winners of the DAR Good Citizens award.

The youngsters, both from Farmington's Lakeshire Elementary School, were winners of the American History Month Essay Contest sponsored by the chapter.

Among those selected as Good Citizens were Diane Kangas from Farmington High School and Michael Renbarger from North Farmington High School.

They were given an award, a certificate and pin, and are automatic contenders for the State of Michigan DAR Good Citizen Award. They are chosen by their schools as exhibiting the qualities of leadership, dependability, service and patriotism to an outstanding degree.

The contest has the support of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

ALIZA McCORMICK and Andra Sulek were winners of the essay competition, having to do with an industry or trade prevalent during the American Revolution.

Aliza, a fifth-grader, took the prize for her composition called "Blacksmithing." Andra, a sixth-grader, took the prize for her work called "The Town Blacksmith."

The awards were made in the Birmingham home of Mrs. James Smyles, who was assisted with hostesses Mrs. Roger Zapinski of Farmington Hills and Mrs. Ralph Robertson of Birmingham.

Speaker for the evening was Mrs. Bill Franklin Sheets, who serves on the executive board of the State of Michigan DAR and who is a member of Ezra Parker Chapter DAR.

Guests heard her speak on "Williamburg's Contribution to Our Tapestry."
