

Partying at Oscar's

Greeting season ticket holders for the Birmingham Theatre's second season, of locally produced shows, are stars Diana Canova and Steve Landesberg (above) at Sunday's party at Oscar's disco, theater co-owner Gary Deeb is happy about the new season, which will offer four shows, "Hold Me!" "Veronica's Room," "Ladyhouse Blues" and "Hooters." Each show has been extended from one to two-week runs because of the successful pre-season ticket sales. Ms. Canova and Landesberg are a romantic duo off-stage, as well as on. Their co-starring roles in "Hold Me!" are their first stage performances together.

Tickets available for Ice Capades outing

An evening with the Ice Capades is on the agenda for The Community House, which has already reserved a block of the best seats in the house for Thursday, March 15.

Dessert and coffee will be served at The Community House prior to boarding the chartered bus for Olympia Stadium where the extravaganza will begin at 7:30 p.m. Reservations are being accepted at The Community House, Bates and Townsend, Birmingham.

Ticket price is $15 per person for the entertainment package including reserved seats for the ice spectacular, dessert and coffee preceding the event, and round-trip transportation.

And about the Ice Capades — it's a trip aboard a fantastic new spaceship and an invitation to visit the galaxies in this all-new 1979 production, titled "Star Struck."

HEADLINING THE cast of skating stars is Olympic and World Champion skater Dorothy Hamill. Her talents are showcased in a new variety of solo and production numbers in this year's Ice Capades.

In its opening "Celestial Voyage," audiences can marvel at everything from robots to moonrocks, and witness astronauts soaring in spaceships.

IF IT'S MARCH, THIS MUST BE PRIME RIB.

March is the month. And prime rib is the special event. On Friday and Saturday nights at L.J. Loopholes.

That's a complete prime rib dinner we're talking about. A nice, thick cut of tender prime rib of beef au jus, along with soup, salad, fresh rolls and butter, a steaming baked potato and dessert. All for just $7.95. That's what makes it so special.

John Williams' piano arrangements are worth the price alone. And we'll be featuring a different weekend special event each month. So, every month you'll have something special to look forward to.

At L.J. Loopholes.
