Brubeck Cantata Scheduled At OU

The Dave Brubeck Trio, the Oakland University chorus and guest soloists will combine Dec. 6 to present the Michigan premiere of "The Gates of Justice," a new Brubeck cantata. The 8:30 performance will be in the Sports and Recreation Building.

"The Gates of Justice" is Brubeck's second major religious work and it follows an oratorio, "The Light in the Wilderness," which received its premiere in 1968.

The Dec. 6 performance is scored for the Dave Brubeck Trio, the 181-voice Oakland University chorus under the direction of John Dvoras, brass ensemble, organ and two outstanding guest soloists, cantor Harold Orbach of Temple Israel in Detroit and a bass-baritone (to be announced).

Tickets are available by writing Dave Brubeck Concert, 120 North Foundation Hall, Oakland University, Rochester.
