Saturday Gymnastics At C'ville

Registration for the winter session of Instructional gymnastics at Clarenceville High School has been set for Saturday, Dec. 13, from 9 a.m. until 12 noon at the high school. Classes begin Saturday, Dec. 20.

The program offers instruction in gymnastics to youngsters six years of age and up regardless of past gymnastics experience.

Classes will be offered in several areas of gymnastics including beginning tumbling, advanced beginning tumbling, intermediate tumbling, advanced tumbling, boys apparatus, girls apparatus and trampolines. Classes are organized according to age and ability.

The instructional gymnastic program offers ways to attain physical fitness, agility, strength, flexibility, body control and gymnastics skills through an activity that is fun for youngsters.

Each class will meet for one hour on Saturdays for 10 weeks. Fee is $7. All classes will meet in the Clarenceville High School gym.

Program director and instructor is Charles Thompson, Clarenceville's athletic director and gymnastic coach. He has been involved in gymnastics as a competitor and coach for 13 years and has produced two state championship teams and many individual champions at Clarenceville.

NW Social Security Office Moves

The Detroit-Northwest Social Security office will move Friday from its present quarters at 18500 Grand River to 17500 Lahser Road, two blocks north of Grand River in Detroit, Sam F. Test, district manager, announced today.

"The office serves the 660,000 residents of northwest Detroit, Redford, Livonia, Plymouth and Northville. There are more than 75,000 beneficiaries in the area receiving either retirement, survivors, disability or medicare benefits," Test said.

Because of the move and the Thanksgiving holiday, the office will be closed from 4:30 p.m., Wednesday until 8:30 a.m., Monday, Dec. 1.

Regular office hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Mondays through Fridays and until 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. People in the Detroit metropolitan area have 10 offices ready to serve them, and anyone having any social security business may contact the office which is most convenient for him.
