College career showcase scheduled in 3 sessions

Career information will be available to all area students at three March Madonna College Career Showcases in the college's Career Resource Center, 35500 Schoolcraft.

College bound high school students, as well as community college students considering a transfer to a four year college, are invited.

The showcase of humanities is set for this Saturday, showcase of the natural sciences, Saturday, March 24, and the showcase of social science, Sunday, March 31. All will run from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The humanities showcase will focus on careers and majors in commercial art, fine arts, communication arts, journalism-public relations, music, religious studies and languages.

The natural sciences showcase will address career opportunities in biology, chemistry, occupational safety, nursing, operating room technology, radiologic technology, emergency room technology, pre-professional medical technology, mathematics, computer science and allied health management.

Fertilizer sale launched

The Boy Scouts of Troop 179 have launched their annual early bird sale of fertilizer with members knocking on doors and others posted by telephones to receive sale orders.

The sale is the major fund-raising event for the troop to carry on troop activities.

The boys' Scoutmaster, Kenneth Miliken, urges participation in the sale, advocating it as both a community service and a method for the young men to learn as they earn.

Douglas Madaleno, chairman of the fund-raising event will take orders at 478-5856.
