On the cover, say hello to spring and usher in the '79 fashion season in drop-dead red and chrome yellow! Saks Fifth Avenue forecasts '79's wow shades with a red skirt and sweater with a black camisole by Karl Lagerfeld for Chloe, then tops his look with a perky pill box of glazed straw.

Saks also says "enjoy yourself, fella" with khaki and army green accented with a Calvin Klein knit tie from Saks' new Moda shop.

Black chintz Sassoon jeans and oversized T-top are worn under a dashing quilted cuddle coat that is reversible to black. What better way to make it easy to laugh at misty spring days? Slim and silt describes a red cotton knit T-shirt dress worn with purple Christian Dior mules.

Then add your own bright touches with ceramic bracelets and red and yellow hair clips and wear drop dead lipstick and nail enamel from Saks' cosmetic department.

THE EFFERVESCENCE OF SPRINGTIME

The sparkle is everywhere at Jacobson's. Feel it in the lustre of pure silk, the crisp of linen textures. Sense it in the shaping up of pared down silhouettes and nipped waistlines of our dress, suit and trim sportswear collection.
