Jaycees sponsor family film night

The Farmington Area Jaycees, in cooperation with the Farmington Area Big Boys, is sponsoring a family film festival on March 30 and 31 in the Farmington High School auditorium.

Farmington High is located on Shawwassee, west of Orchard Lake Road.

Charge for each day is $1.

Starting at 7 p.m. on Friday, the film festival will feature Martin Mull in "FM," the story of some free-wheeling disc jockeys who are dedicated to the purity of FM radio. Also starring in that film is former Detroit Lion Alex Karras.

"Slap Shot," starring Paul Newman, also will be featured that evening. That film revolves around the story of a third rate minor league hockey team and its player-coach, played by Newman.

Saturday's fare includes a three-dimensional look at the '50s. "7½ Cents From Outer Space" will be shown in 3-D. Viewers will be provided with the glasses which provide the special effects. That film stars Richard Carlson and Barbara Rush.

Children can join in on the fun Saturday with the showing of a number of cartoons beginning at 12:30 p.m. Among the cartoon characters featured will be Woody Woodpecker, Yogi the Bear and Chilly the Penguin.

Another feature will be "Skateboard," the story of a down-and-out gambler who decides to get the bookies off his back by starting a professional skateboard team.

Tickets can be obtained at the area Big Boys or from any of the Jaycees.

Mercy presents spring revue

Our Lady of Mercy High School will present a spring revue on April 1.

The revue begins at 3 p.m. Tickets are $2 and are available at the school box office, 23300 11 Mile, Farmington Hills 48018.

Among numbers to be featured are calypso tunes, '50s music, Strauss and Broadway hits.
