

Jesus Christ Superstar

Farmington Hills resident Shaye Woldt takes the part of Mary Magdalene in Oakland University's Studio Theatre production of "Jesus Christ Superstar" which continues through April 1. The rock opera also stars Alan Spiller, (standing) who portrays the part of Judas and Gary DeVar, as Christ. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. except on Sundays when the performance begins at 2:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. General admission is $3 with all tickets sold in advance by calling for reservations, 377-2245.

Club Circuit

THE FARMINGTON MUSICAL SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE has launched its music competition for students in grades 7-12, to recognize individual performance and talent, and to aid students' musical growth.

Competitors will vie for cash prizes in wind, percussion, string, piano and voice categories all day Saturday, April 7, in Harrison High School's music suite.

A panel of judges will select three winners in junior high and three winners in senior high school.

The Young Artist Award, a $250 prize given to a high school senior planning to further music education at the college level, will be given only if the judges find the performance of high caliber.

Auditions will be closed. No one will be allowed in the performance room except the contestant, accompanist, judges and scholarship officials.

FARMINGTON AREA JAYCEE AUXILIARY has cancelled all plans for its spring arts and crafts sale, in order to put all efforts into its sale next fall.

THE ALL GIRLS SQUARE DANCE CLUB of Royal Oak begins a new session of classes for beginners at 7 p.m. Friday, March 30 in Oxford School, corner of Oxford and Oakshire in Berkeley. Women ages 17-70 are eligible to join. Pre-registration is not necessary.

METROPOLITAN CHAPTER OF HADASSAH meet at 7 p.m. Sunday, April 1, in Charles W. Warren Store, Somerset Mall, for the unveiling of the Edward M. Boehm collection of Judaic art.

The collection includes re-creations from the treasures of the Jewish Museum of New York, objects of art and sculpture that resulted from extensive research of the company's historians. Proceeds from the sale of porcelains and jewelry will benefit Hadassah. Tickets must be purchased in advance by calling Hadassah, 357-2920.

SENIOR CITIZEN DROP-IN CENTER is open for bridge and pinocle players from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. every Monday and Wednesday at the Farmington Masonic Temple on Farmington Road at Grand River.

Guests are invited to bring a sandwich lunch; beverages are served.

FARMINGTON GARDEN CLUB meets at noon, Monday, April 2, in the Farmington Community Center. Program for the afternoon will be led by Betty Frankel, who will show slides on the flower gardens of England.

HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB meets at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 5, in First Presbyterian Church of Farmington Hills for a program called "Just Potting Around."

Guest speaker for the program, which includes a demonstration of creative flower containers, is Mrs. Fred Gehrke, a master judge and founder of the Greater Detroit Flower Arranging Guild. Hostess chairman for the evening is Mrs. Charles Kiley.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS, West Bloomfield-Farmington Area League, will host Tom Greene, Lansing correspondent for Channel 2, WJRH-TV, as guest speaker for its 33rd annual business meeting and luncheon.

A cash bar will open at 11:30 a.m. and lunch is scheduled for noon on Saturday, April 7, in the Roman Terrace. During the business portion of the meeting, new officers will be elected.

All events scheduled by the league are open to guests. Persons wishing to make a reservation for the spring business meeting may call Shirley Saham, 628-8940.
