Adat Shalom Sisterhood hosts Richard Valeriani

Richard Valeriani, NBC news diplomatic correspondent, will be guest speaker at Adat Shalom Sisterhood's annual fund-raising event, 12:30 p.m. Monday, April 30, in the synagogue, 29901 Middlebelt Road.

Living out of a suitcase for 15 years as NBC's most traveled foreign correspondent, Valeriani has been witness to innumerable international events.

He will give a first hand view of the power balance between branches of government, and discuss his new book, "Travels with Henry." The book is a biographical, analytical and sometimes humorous view of former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger.

The book will be on sale. During the afternoon, local jewelers will man boutiques filled with gold, silver and porcelain jewelry, from around the world.

While browsing through the boutiques, guests will be able to enjoy pastries, fruits and espresso coffees from the European Coffee House.

PROCEEDS from the event will enable the sisterhood to continue its support of youth programs, camp scholarships, educational and cultural programming.

Sisterhood president is Claudia Gold, and chairperson of the donor event is Harriet Dunskey.

Ticket co-chairpersons are Connie Kopald and Geri Botwin.

The event is open to the public, and there is a charge. Reservations are being taken by calling the synagogue at 851-5100.

Members of the donor committee include Ann Benderoff, Joan Rosenbloom, Nita Lichtenstein, Esther Allan, Susan Bindes, Arlene Klein, Elaine Rosenblatt, Lenore Dunskey, Lil Finner.
