THE GATHERING PLACE continues its schedule of cards, shuffleboard, craft, exercise, dancing classes and bingo, in Mercy Center, every weekday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Highlights for next week is the showing of "High Sierra" at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, May 15; a cosmetic workshop at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, May 16; and a talk with a lawyer at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, May 17.

Attorney Dale Winnie will answer legal questions in an open session; then be available for private counseling, but registration for a personal talk is necessary, in The Gathering Place.

Harriet Glassman visits at 11:30 a.m. Friday, May 18, to answer any questions regarding social security and medication.

All area seniors are advised to take advantage of Winnie's and Ms. Glassman's expertise. Meanwhile seniors who have been attending the arts and crafts classes in The Gathering Place are preparing for their Arts & Crafts Show, one of the biggest events of the year at the drop-in center.

Others are contributing to the "Treat Table," which will be filled with homemade desserts on sale day.

Show time is from 1:30-3 p.m. Wednesday, May 16, in the Gathering Place.
