Farmington Garden Club elects Mrs. W. Blakeney

Mrs. William Blakeney has been elected president of Farmington Garden Club for 1979-80. Her vice presidents will be Mrs. Charles Audette, Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. Robert Allen.

One of her first duties in office will be to lead a delegation of club members at the Annual Meeting of Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan in Kalamazoo's Hilton Inn.

The meeting, which begins May 30, gathers local garden clubs together to review club events of the past year, elicit new ideas, plan and discuss club activities on a statewide level.

The three-day event will be followed up with a potluck salad luncheon on Monday, June 4, when the club will honor its past presidents in Farmington Community Center.

Then Mrs. Blakeney will oversee the first of the fund-raising events planned for the new year; a rummage and bake sale.

The fund-raiser is set for Thursday and Friday, June 7-8, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day in First Presbyterian Church, on Farmington Road, at 11 Mile Road.

Proceeds from all of the group's fund-raising events are used for scholarships, maintaining community gardens, purchasing gardening books for the libraries and for donations to various organizations which encourage and promote better gardening throughout the world.

FARMINGTON GARDEN CLUB sponsors monthly meetings with junior gardeners, a group of youngsters who are interested in growing and arranging flowers.

The juniors meet with senior citizens once a month to demonstrate and supervise flower and nature-related crafts projects.

Mrs. Audette is in charge of programming for the year. Mrs. Johnson will be in charge of all fund-raising projects, and Mrs. Allen will be in charge of awards.

Other new officers taking positions in the club are Mrs. James Correll and Mrs. William Penn, as secretaries, and Mrs. Clarence Cole, treasurer.

Double winner

Artist Alice Nichols brought home two awards when winners were announced during the Farmington Artists Club's spring show. She took third place for "Gloucester Lobster," an oil shown above, and she was first runner-up for The Artists Choice award, given for her watercolor called "Red Fusion." Mrs. Nichols is a co-owner of Garret Gallery and Studios and a founding member of Farmington Art Foundation.
