GATHERING PLACE visitors will dance to a live band Friday, May 18, an event that is an every-Friday affair in the senior citizens' drop-in center in Mercy Center.

The center will be closed Monday for Memorial Day, but other than that it is business as usual with a schedule of events that run from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. weekdays.

All persons who use a hearing aid may bring them in for check and repairs at 10 a.m. Tuesday, May 22. On Wednesday, May 23, members take off for a theater trip to Westgate, and a shopping trip is planned for Saturday, May 26.

The month winds up with the seniors' Arts and Crafts show and sale running from 1:30-3:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 30.

Visitors to the Gathering Place are asked to use Gate 4 into Mercy Center, on 11 Mile east of Middlebelt Road.

AMERICAN WOMEN IN RADIO AND TELEVISION honor their own with an Awards Banquet tonight in Dearborn Inn.

Awards will be presented in five categories to women who have had a significant impact upon the broadcast industry in the Detroit Metropolitan area.

Nominations come from management personnel at radio and television stations in the area and by advertising executives and industry leaders.

Sharrman Stewart, station manager for WNIC-WWKR radio in Dearborn will assume her new duties as president of the group in June. Her vice president will be WJBK-TV news producer Wendy Robins.

Other incoming officers are Rosetta Gadons, director of Community Relations for WTVS-TV, and Rose Matthews, director of Community Relations for WCXI-WTWR radio.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS, INC., Farmington Hills Chapter 2088, meets at 1:30 p.m. Friday, May 18, in Farmington Hills Community Library on 12 Mile Road.

Frank Ryan, an assistant state director of the organization, will talk about innovative programs created by other chapters in the state.

All meetings of the group are open to all persons over 55 years of age, whether retired or not. Membership inquiries will be taken by A. L. Mueller, 476-6997.

SWINGING SINGLES, for persons 25 years and older, meet at 8:30 p.m. Sunday, May 20, for cocktails and dancing to The Continentals, in The Spagetti Company. The restaurant and night club is at 2393 Woodward Ave. Admission is $3.50 at the door.

JUVENILE DIABETES FOUNDATION, Greater Huron Valley Chapter, sponsors a free diabetes workshop at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 20, in Ann Arbor Municipal Airport.

The workshop will feature speakers, literature and films concerning diet, insulin injections and testing materials used in controlling the disease.

The session is open to all persons who wish to learn about diabetes. For information call 668-8806.

WOMEN OF NORTH FARMINGTON meet at 11 a.m. Tuesday, May 22, for their Installation Luncheon in Idylwyld Golf Club in Livonia. Music for the program will come from Farmington Musicals.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY invites all women who have had mastec-tomy surgery to a luncheon and seminar at 11 a.m. Wednesday, May 23, in Roma's of Livonia, 27777 Schoolcraft Road.

"Mastectomy Update" will feature an exhibit of the latest in prosthetic garments, as well as fashions from local stores. A panel of breast cancer experts will speak and answer questions. There is a $6 charge. Reservations will be taken by calling the society at 557-5353.

MICHIGAN STATE CIRCLE

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA convene for its 50th annual convention on June 3-5 in Mackinac Island's Grand Hotel. Mrs. William Kuida, a resident of Franklin Village, is the state regent for the international organization.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to: Club Circuit, Farmington Observer, 23352 Farmington Road, Farmington 48024, and must arrive on the Monday prior to Thursday publication.
