House vote may mean end of revenue sharing

REVENUE SHARING — By a vote of 190-195, the House refused to restore $2.3 billion in fiscal 1980 budget authority for general revenue sharing. If upheld in later House and Senate action, this vote signals the end of revenue sharing, which has sent billions of few-strings-attached dollars to state and local governments since it began in 1972, The vote came during debate on a bodget resolution, which was headed 1972, the vote came during debate on a bodget resolution, which was headed to the state of the move to restore the money state. When was not let our desire to balance the federal budget obscure the importance of general revenue sharing. "" Rep. Leon Panetta, Defalfs, an opposition of the proposition of general revenue sharing. "" Rep. Leon Panetta, Defalfs, an opposition of the proposition of the proposition of the proposition of general revenue sharing. "" Rep. Leon Panetta, Defalfs, an opposition of the proposition of the p haring. . . " Rep. Leon Panetta, D-Calif., an oppo-Rep. Leon Franctus, D. Calli, an oppo-nent, said that "if we are going to con-trol the federal budget, there ought to be no sacred cows."

Members voting "nay" supported House Budget Committee's decision to kill general revenue sharing.

Reps. Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth, Da-vid Bonior, D-Mount Clemens, William

Here's how area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes May 3 through May 9.

REVENUE SHARING — By a vote of 190-195, the House refused to restore $2.3. billion in fiscal 1980 budget autionity for general revenue sharing. If upheld in later House and Senate cation, this vote signals the end of revenue sharing, which has sent billions of the execution this vote came during debate on a target for the came during debate on a 1972 he which was beaded for final passage.

Rep. Robert Edgar, D-Pa, a supporter of the move to restore the money.

budget blueprint to which authorization and appropriation bills are expected to conform.

Rep. Ralph Regula, R-Ohio, a sponsor, said that with the Treasury facing annual interest on the national debt of $55 billion to $57 billion, 'unless we start pulling back and restraining that each outlay, the day will come when the budget will be made up entirely of uncontrollaber.

Rep. Jim Wright, D-Tex., an opponent, said: '1 see people on the Republican side laughing, Maybe it is funny. Maybe it is great fun to cut these programs for those who can afford least to be cut. Is that what we are prepared to do?"

Roll Call Report

Members voting "yea." favored the budget cuts.

Broomfield voted "yea."

Pursell, Boinor, Brodhead and Blanchard voted "nay."

Ford did not vote.

FOOD STAMPS — The House rejected 147-276, an amendment to cut about $650 million from the $7 billion fiscal 1989 authority for the Food Stamp program.

Rep. Thomas Coleman, R-Mo., the sponsor said: "If only half of the waste and error in food stamp management and administration was eliminated, there would be a cost savings in the neighborhood of at least $650 million," Rep. Mike McCormack, D-Wash, an opponent, said that debate on the over-all budget blueprint "is not the time or place to be attempting to do the work of the standing committees of this

Members voting "nay" opposed the cut in Food Stamp budget authority. Broomfield voted "yea." Pursell, Bonior, Ford, Brodhead and Blanchard voted "nay." SENATE

BEWARE OF BOOZE — The Senate rejected (21-68) an attempt to table language to require a health warning to be printed on bottles of alcoholic beverages containing more that 24 percent alcohol by volume. This volte kept the language alive. The warning would read: "Caution: Consumption of alcoholic beverages may be hazardous to your health, may be habit-forming, and may cause serious birth defects when consumed during pregnancy." The vote came during debate on S 440, a bill funding federal alcohol-control programs that was passed and sent to the House.

grams that was passed and sent to the Mouse.

Sen. Walter Huddleston, D-Ky, a supporter of the motion to kill the language, said: "Obviously, just a warning unter label has not prowne effective on other products, such as eigarets."

Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., sponsor of the warning, said: "The people of our nation deserve to be warned of the addictive nature of alcohol and threfisk to health and life created by excessive drinking."

The strome of the warning said: "The people of cour nation deserve to be warned of the addictive nature of alcohol and threfisk to health and life created by excessive drinking."

Sen. Said: "We have to be prep to scunty."

I wan John Melcher, D-Mont, an containing strong alcoholic beverages.

Sen. Carl Levin, D. voide: "yea."

Sen. Donald Riegle, D. voted "nay."

GAS RATIONING — By a void "any."

Riegle and Levin voted "yea."

58-39, the Senate adopted a resolution giving President Carter standby authority to ration gasoline nationwide if the determines there is a new-shortage-emergency. Congress must consent on any rationing order. Vehicles in states which historically have had the highest volume of gasoline sales per registered vehicle would fare best under the Administration proposel.

Sen Robert Byrd, D-W.Va., a supporter, said: "We have to be prepared in the event a national emergency hits tis country."

Sen John Melcher, D-Mont, an opponent, said senators should not be "rub-nent, said senators should not be "rub-

Sen John Melcher, D-Mont, an oppo-nent, said senators should not be "tub-berstamping a plan which, if it is ever put into effect, will be a monumental failure, a scheme that is entirely unworkabale." Senators voting "yea" wanted the President to have standby authority to ration resolidation.

OCC teaches CPR course June

Cardiopulmonary resuscitation will Day," will feature 250 volunteer inbe taught all day Friday, June 1, at Structors and more than 100 manne-Oakland Community College's Orchard on Experiment of County Council on Emergency Medical Services, hope to train 2,000 persons.

