Jennifer Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Clark of Birmingham, is appearing in the Stanley Theater production of "Vanities" in Estes Park, Colo.

The play opened Friday, May 18, and will continue through Sept. 18. This is Ms. Clark's first professional performance. She is a graduate of Southfield High School and has bachelor's and master's degrees in dramatics from Central Michigan University and the University of Denver.

She is head of the dramatics department at Boulder High School.

While in college, Ms. Clark appeared in "Lion in Winter," "Blithe Spirit" and "Sweet Charity." She played the little redheaded girl in a "Charlie Brown" production, which was part of a traveling children's theater program.

Her high school acting credits include "Once Upon a Mattress," "Guys and Dolls" and "Oklahoma." She appeared in "Lady's Not For Burning" last year, in connection with the University of Denver's summer stock program.

What's up in Southfield?
The Rafters.

The most exciting new dining experience around. The Rafters. It's sleek, contemporary and casually sophisticated. With warm textures and colors. Plus a rooftop view of the city lights. The view inside our menu is impressive, too. Try the Rainbow Trout stuffed with crabmeat Maitre d'Hotel. Or perhaps Rack of Lamb with fine herbs. After dinner, we have smooth entertainment to cap off your evening at The Rafters in Stouffer's Northland Inn. 21000 Northwestern Highway. 569-4700.
