Lahser cops city track title

Bloomfield Hills Lahser won the city bragging rights in boys' track Monday. The Knights defeated Cranbrook rivals Bloomfield Hills Andover and Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook in the Hoff Triangular.

Cranbrook was second with 53 points, and Andover was third with 46 points.

Phil Ruffino led Lahser with wins in the 120-yard high hurdles (14.6) and the 330-yard low hurdles (40.5). Other Lahser winners were Tim Wain in the high jump (6-4), Chris Prowse in the 100-yard dash (10.6), and Doug Fredley in the 880-yard run (2:01).

THE KNIGHTS swept all three relays. Ruffino, Kevin Munson, Randy Reising and Chris Prowse won the 880-yard relay. Randy Jones, Aaron Koonce, Prowse and Reising won the 440-yard relay (45.4). And Koonce, Reising, Mark Mastorec and Wain won the 440-yard relay (3:21).

Charlie d'Albertson led Cranbrook with wins in the 220-yard dash (24.1) and the 440-yard dash (52.6). Billy Hill was the only other Crane thinned to win an event, taking the long jump (21-0).

The Andover weight men led the Barons. Pete LaDuque won the discus throw (132-9) and Jeff Sherman won the shot put (45-3 1/4).

The Barons also performed well in the distances. Barry Tornow was first in the one-mile run (4:27.4) and Tom Buford was first in the two-mile run (10:01.8).

Ed Smith won the pole vault (11-0) for Andover.

THE HOFF Triangular is named after Don Hoff, former track coach at Andover and current cross country coach. The meet is held annually between the three Bloomfield Hills schools.

All three schools competed in the annual Oakland Country track meet last Friday. Individual performers from each school who finished in the top three of their respective events at last week's regional will compete at the state meet this weekend in Flint.
