

McGlinicy campaigns to stay on Board

How do you feel about the conflict of interest policy?

I support it. It doesn't bother me one bit.

Why do you want to continue to serve on the board?

Now that I have almost one year under my belt, I'm starting to contribute. My experience and education is helpful. Prior, I was active in PTA.

How is your attendance record?

I've attended every meeting except one because of intensive labor negotiations at work.

Are you in favor of the middle school format?

I support the middle school. Conversion is something that must be monitored closely by the board. Things are beginning to gel.

The philosophy of the middle school is to make the transition for sixth graders into a less restrictive atmosphere. If it goes smoothly, it will be a great improvement. Before, there was too abrupt a change from elementary to junior high.

Parents seem to be in favor of it. But we must guard that it doesn't become a junior high with another name.

The emphasis on the middle school should not overlook that we are going into a four year high school which will mean a closer look at curriculum and graduation requirements.

Firework sales dampened ones who started this thing. We're going to stay out of it."

Abdelnour said he thought it was legal to sell the fireworks they had on the shelves. Abdelnour said that's what he was told by a fireworks manufacturer.

The manufacturer claimed there are loopholes in the state law regarding the sale of fireworks, Abdelnour said.

THE ABDELNOURS, however, are out of the battle, as far as they're concerned.

"We took them off the shelves and put them in the back room," Albert Abdelnour said. "It's not our fight like the dailies (newspapers) made it out to be. We don't need that kind of publicity."

"It's okay to sell things that don't explode, like sparklers and little cones that shower sparks," he said. "That's what we'll continue to sell."

GENO TOFFANETTI

Local man is promoted

Geno Toffanetti, a Farmington resident, has been promoted to the position of General Sales Manager of the Kolene Corp.

Toffanetti has been working for 25 years with Kolene, which manufactures and markets molten salt-bath processing systems for the automotive, metalworking and metal producing industries. His most recent position before his promotion was Manager of Sales and Service.

Toffanetti has served as president of the Coil Coaters Association and has authored several papers on salt bath stripping of paint fixtures, as well as salt bath cleaning of sand and investment castings.

The announcement was made by William P. Ziegler, Vice President of Marketing.

FREE
the perfect start to your personal art collection

FREE! An original handpainted Gray's Watercolor print of the Nichols School when you save at Michigan National Bank-Farmington. Open a new savings or checking account with a deposit of $100 or more or add $200 or more to an existing savings account at Michigan National-Farmington and you will be on your way to a rare and timeless collection of art. The above is one of five watercolor prints of local scenes especially commissioned by us to say "Thank you" in a personal way to our new and our steady depositors.

Each an original print, handpainted in a limited edition. Because each print is handpainted through a hand process similar to that perfected by Currier & Ives just before the turn of the century, each is unique, a rare and individual joy that will increase as long as you own it. Each is limited in number issued. The entire collection is comprised of five when displayed in a grouping.

Plus—$5 discount certificate is yours free with every subsequent $50 deposit you make in your savings account. So that you can collect a full five print wall grouping, we give you free each time you deposit $50 or more, a $5 discount certificate. Using this certificate, you pay just $6.95 plus tax to purchase any handpainted print in the series—a regular $11.95 retail price!

Handsome frames are also available at a moderate cost without any additional deposit!

Each print is a limited edition. When the supply is exhausted, the lithograph plates will be destroyed. No further prints will be made, ever. This way the value of your picture is protected. But it does mean you must act quickly. Come to the Michigan National Bank-Farmington and see the exclusive collection of five prints displayed.
