JUNIOR GROUP OF LEAGUE GOODWILL welcomed 17 new members at a tea given early this month in Cranbrook House launching its new season of service and fund-raising for Goodwill Industries.

Among the new members was Mrs. Robert W. Koshl, of Farmington Hills. Tea was poured in the stately dining room by former presidents of the group, Mrs. G. Norman Gilmore of Grosse Pointe Woods, and Mrs. Frank Angelo of Birmingham.

METROPOLITAN DETROIT CHAPTER OF HADASSAH has elected Annette Meskin, a Southfield resident, as its new president.

Her vice presidents are Joan Provizer of Farmington Hills; Edith Stone of Farmington; Janet Pont, Beverly Friedman, Peggy Shafir, all of Southfield; Marjorie Sanborn, Doris August, both of Birmingham; Sue Kauton of Bloomfield Hills; Diane Keim of West Bloomfield; and Dodie Schlesinger of Franklin.

HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB installed Mrs. John Woods as its president in installation ceremonies held today.

Her vice presidents are Mrs. Charles Gunderson, Mrs. Richard Adams and Mrs. James Bahna. Other incoming officers are Mrs. Robert McFadden, Mrs. David Wemyss and Mrs. Jack Hamm.

The 1978-79 board of directors hosts the meeting which will honor all of the group's past presidents.

The group winds up its season after winning two state awards for "Autumn's Artistry," a fall flower show; a fund-raising sale of flower flats, continuous maintenance of the gardens at Farmington Community Center and Noble School; and most notably, the continuation of its garden therapy programs for the handicapped. The women will concentrate now on their flower show for 1980, when they will include entries from Junior Gardeners.

Gardeners is made up of area youngsters, sponsored by and patterned after Hill and Dale.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS, Farmington Hills Chapter 2080, meet for "Luncheon is Served," at noon, Friday, June 15, in the downstairs room of Farmington Hills Community Library.

Tickets are $2.50, available by calling 476-5952, for a reservation.

All events of the group are open to all persons over the age of 55, whether retired or not.

Meetings are adjourned for July and August, but will resume on September 23, in the library, and continue through June on the third Friday of each month.

Helen Cope has accepted the legislative chair for the coming term; and Gary Bartlam will head the insurance committee. Victoria Spehar will act as public relations chairwoman, and Hedwig Dornbusch will act as community service chairman.

PIONEER WOMEN, Sharon Chapter, meet for "Luncheon is Served," at noon, Saturday, June 16, in Labor Zionist Institute, 28555 Middlebelt, Farmington.

Reservations will be taken by calling Bea Shulman, 958-0584.

THE GATHERING PLACE will host "The Kitchen Band," a group from Walled Lake, for a performance that begins at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, June 19, in the senior citizen drop-in center in Mercy Center on 11 Mile and Middlebelt Roads.

A Millionaires Party is set for June 20, and on June 22, the group sets off for a boat trip to Sarnia.

Shopping at Tel-12 Mall is on the agenda for June 23, and a paper sculpture workshop is scheduled for June 28.

Dancing to a live band, yoga instructions, exercises in the pool, cards, bingo, sing-alongs, and lunch every weekday at noon are all on the June calendar.

A complete schedule of offerings is published every month in "The Senior Messenger," which can be picked up without charge in The Gathering Place.

Guests are asked to use Gate 4 on 11 Mile, east of Middlebelt.

FARMINGTON NEIGHBORS CLUB invite members and friends to the annual potluck luncheon at noon Wednesday, June 20, in Farmington Community Center.

Installation of new officers will follow the luncheon when Gloria Butt will take the presidency.

Her vice presidents will be Margaret Horback and Adele Pulford.

Other incoming officers are Betty Parks, Ruth Stigles and Juel Hughes.

Revaluations should be made before June 18 by calling Mrs. William Farmington, 476-3711.

SINGLES DANCE is a new club which meets every Wednesday night in St. Sarkis Hall, 13900 Ford, between Southfield and Evergreen Roads, Dearborn.

Dancing begins at 8:45 p.m. and continues until 11:45 p.m. to live music. On tap for the next several Wednesdays are the bands of Jerry Robotka, Johnny Sadack, Frank Venice and Art Wyse. Singles Dance is open to all single persons over the age of 30. A $3 admission charge will be asked at the door.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA, Detroit North Suburban Alumnae, travel to Indianapolis, Ind. this month to attend the sorority's 75th anniversary convention.

More than 750 members are expected to attend the convention when the group will open its new Alpha Gamma Delta International Headquarters building.

Alpha Gamma Delta was founded at Syracuse University, in New York, in 1904. A member of the National Panhellenic Conference since 1909, 125 chapters have been installed at colleges and universities throughout the United States and Canada. Today the total membership is approaching 70,000.

Delegates from the Detroit chapter are Jane Graf, of Royal Oak, trustee of Alpha Gamma Delta Founders Memorial Foundation; Mrs. C. P. Hatch of Farmington, who is grand secretary of the organization; Mrs. James Messmer, grand vice president; Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Donald Knapp, all of Birmingham; Mary Ellen McDonald of Troy; and Beverly Payne of Detroit.
