

Summer relaxation takes shape in City Park

A graceful move is made from the pitcher's mound by Shawn Armstrong. (Staff photo)

A good way to spend lunchtime is a little sunbathing in the park as is demonstrated by Rhonda Gael, an employee of the Masonary Institute of Michigan. (Staff photos by Randy Borst)

Never too young to enjoy the outdoors seems to be the motto of Robyn Gael, 7½ months old, who is being helped along on the swing by her grandmother, Eunice Savage. (Staff photo)

Open spaces surround these two young equestrians as they ride through the wooded areas of Farmington. Guiding the steed is Joanne Miceli. Pointing the way is Stacey Selinsky. (Staff photo)

THE INSIDE * ANGLE

TEN YEARS AFTER graduation, the class of 1969 from Our Lady of Sorrows High School will sponsor its reunion on July 21 in the Farmington Holiday Inn, Ten Mile near Grand River. Graduates who wish more information can call Pat Marzolf Rose, 563-6109.

THEY HELD HANDS AND DANCED around the bonfire last week at the Unitarian Church of Farmington. While the fire burned bright, the congregation sang, "This Land is Our Land." The object of such jubilation at 2501 Halsted? The congregation was bidding farewell to the church's mortgage by burning the papers.

SENIOR HOUSING will be the topic of discussion at the Gathering Place at 11:30 a.m. June 28. A Farmington Hills City Council member, a member of the Farmington Hills Housing Commission and a member of the Farmington Area Commission on Aging will present a panel discussion. Questions from the audience will be entertained afterwards.

PERSONS INTERESTED IN expressing their opinion on the proposed senior citizen housing on Freedom and Drake are invited to attend a Farmington Hills Planning Commission Public Hearing at 8 p.m. June 21 in North Farmington High School, Thirteen Mile near Farmington Road.

A WEEKEND IN MONTREAL was won by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dewan of Milford during the Farmington Community Center's ethnic festival. The prize package includes: lodging at the Richillie Hotel, round trip by jet, breakfast voucher, sightseeing tours, a ticket for a sports event in Montreal and $50 in spending money. Congratulations from IA.

PROFESSOR EDWARD C. LIM of Farmington, head of the physical chemistry division at Wayne State University has been honored with the Faculty Research Award conferred by the Wayne State University chapter of the Sigma Xi Society.

"ATOM COMES TO TOWN," a movie concerning the peacetime uses of the atom will be shown at the Detroit Science Center on June 23-24 at 1 p.m., 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. in the demonstration theater.

MARIAN MCCracken, a Farmington teacher conferred with U.S. Rep. William (and the president told me. . .) Brodhead, of the 17th Congressional district on the establishment of a cabinet level Department of Education last month.

GO GOLFING, YOUNG MAN will be the advice ringing through San Marino Golf Course, on Halsted between Grand River and Twelve Mile. The course is the site of the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department junior rate hours for golfers 17 years and younger. For $1.75, a player can go through nine holes of golf from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday.

WEEKEND COLLEGE AT Mercy College of Detroit is now accepting applications for the fall semester which begins on Sept. 8. Deadline for applications is August 17. The weekend college conducts classes for five Saturdays a semester for each three credit hour course. A maximum of three courses can be taken each semester. Directed studies enable students to cover the same course content and meet the same academic standards as in regular day and evening classes. In this manner students could possibly earn a BA in about 4½ years. The weekend college offers a BA in Health Services of Business Administration. The minor in each area is psychology. Tuition for each three credit hour course is $252. Financial aid may be available for students who take a minimum of six credit hours per semester. For further information call Mercy College at 531-7820, extension 373 or write the Director, 8200 West Outer Drive, Detroit, 48219.

FRATERNITY BROTHERS John DeMatia and Gordon Bennett have been elected into offices of the Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity at Michigan Technological University.

DEADLINE

Material submitted to Inside Angles, 23352 Farmington Road, Farmington, 48024, should include the name and phone number of the sender. Typewritten notices are appreciated but not required. Items should be received at least one week before publication. Photos can't be used. All material becomes the property of the Farmington Observer.

TELEPHONE CONNECTIONS.

To contact the Observer use the following numbers:

- Staff — 477-5450
- Delivery — 591-0500
- Classified Ads — 591-0900
- Display Ads — 591-2300
- Legal Ads — 591-2300

Graduate to the Smith-Corona Courier

The ideal lightweight portable typewriter for the college-bound. 84-character manual keyboard, 3-position personal touch adjustment, wide carriage, half-space bar and pre-set tabulator. With cover, 99.95. Hudson's Commercial Supplies.

HUDSON'S