

Artist leads national group

Patricia Hill Burnett, Detroit artist and women's rights leader, was elected president of the National Association of Commission for Women (NACW) at its annual convention in Providence Rhode Island, June 9.

NACW is in a key position among the national women's organizations because it is frequently consulted by the White House on women's issues and testifies in almost all legislation concerning women.

Ms. Burnett said in her acceptance speech to the representatives of member commissions on the status of women from all 50 states, who voted for her to be their top officer for the next term. "The recession and tax revolt has brought tremendous cutbacks in state fund. First to be reduced or eliminated are women's commissions because they have not yet found a way to unite their voices in protest."

She added, "Our main goal this year must be to counter the backlash against women's commissions across the country, in order to unify the women in every state to work for passage of the Equal Rights Amendment, as a firm step towards real equality." Since 1971 Governor William Milliken has regularly appointed her to the Women's Commission, during which she served two terms as chairman. She founded the first chapter of the National Organization for Women in Michigan in 1969 and served on the national board of NOW for five years. She was president of the Detroit House of Correction Commission, which handled all the women prisoners in Michigan, and is now serving on the Detroit Human Rights Commission.

A way to earn extra interest dollars with your 8.903%* Michigan Money Market Certificate.

- 1. Here's how Michigan National Banks can pay you extra interest . . . automatically!

Deposit $10,000 in a 182-day Michigan Money Market Certificate. We'll transfer the monthly interest from your certificate into a regular 5% passbook savings account. You'll earn extra interest on your interest! Continuous compounding of interest isn't allowed on money market certificates. But it is allowed on regular passbook savings. And since interest on your certificate can be paid monthly, we will automatically deposit that interest in your passbook savings account. When your Michigan Money Market Certificate matures, you can take all the interest from your regular passbook account, plus your principal, and reinvest in a new certificate at the prevailing rate.
- 2. Michigan Money Market Certificates pay you the highest bank interest.

No other bank pays more on Michigan Money Market Certificates than the Michigan National Banks. A minimum deposit of $10,000 is required and the rate at which the certificate is purchased is fixed until maturity.
- 3. Get more details on this important new service.

Call or visit any office of the Michigan National Banks for complete information on our new Michigan Money Market Certificate service. Because Michigan National Banks are doing more for their customers—working to see that you earn more money for your money. And that's a very good reason for moving your money to a Michigan National Bank.

THIS WEEK'S RATE: Effective June 28 thru July 4, 1979

8.903% Annual interest rate. 9.232% Effective annual yield.

The effective annual yield is subject to change at renewal and assumes that the interest rate remains unchanged and that both the interest and principal are reinvested.

Federal regulation prohibits the payment of a time deposit prior to maturity unless three months of interest is forfeited and interest on the amount withdrawn is reduced to the passbook rate. New federal regulation also prohibits the compounding of interest on these certificates.
