

Seniors come out for music, dancing and games

Senior citizens at the Gathering Place at Mercy Center don't sit back and let the sun soak up their energy during the summer months. Instead they opt for a little fast-stepping to some dance tunes.

Pairing off is part of the fun when dancing at Mercy Center's Gathering Place. Here Forrest Hittle and Mary Drury do their thing.

Mitzi Marini and Morton Allan find dancing to their liking.

Keeping in tune and providing some good music for the dancers also is part of the fun. Al Salcioli blows a tune on his trumpet.

Lanzi Agostino gives a hearty smile as he arranges his cards during a lively game of pinochle. A peak over his shoulder shows us that he isn't doing at all badly.

Now Calvin Klein is a big name in small jeans

These days, thanks to Calvin Klein, looking great in jeans is kid stuff. Because he's just designed a line of fashionable status jeans in sizes to fit toddlers through pre-teens. They're rugged, western style jeans with popular five pocket styling, made of indigo cotton denim. All with the distinctive Calvin Klein hip pocket logo that tells the world style is indicative of an attitude, not an age. And if you want to know how much your kids will love them, just think how much you love yours. Need we say more? $18 to $27, at Hudson's.
