

'Night' opens at Hilberry

"Night Must Fall," a murder melodrama by Emyln Williams, opens Wednesday, Aug. 1, at the Hilberry Theater, Wayne State University. Joyce Ramsey plays the part of Mrs. Bramson, and Andrew Barnicle plays the part of Dan. Showtime is 8:30 p.m. Contact the theater box office at Cass and Hancock, Detroit, 48202, for ticket information, or call 577-2972.

Karen Valentine at County Playhouse

The Cherry County Playhouse, currently celebrating its 25th year of presenting star summer theater in Traverse City, is presenting television celebrity Karen Valentine in the William Gibson comedy "Two for the Seesaw." Ms. Valentine, who won an Emmy Award for her performance on "Room 222," and is frequently a guest on many major talk and game shows, has recently been spending more of her time in the theater.

She has broken house records at the Kenley Players in Ohio in "The Moon is Blue" and "Bus Stop."

She just completed a record-setting engagement as Billie Dawn in "Born Yesterday" at the Bart Reynolds Dinner Theatre in Florida.

At the Cherry County Playhouse, Ms. Valentine will play the role of Gittel Mosca, a girl from the Bronx who finds herself caught in a romantic entanglement with a midwestern lawyer.

He is cultured and gentle and she is unsophisticated and unaware. Their relationship develops into something both comic and heartwarming.

Performances are Tuesday-Friday at 8:30 p.m., Saturday at 6 and 9:45 p.m., Sunday at 7:30 p.m., and a Thursday matinee at 2.

Disco dancers win H'wood trip

Paul Gilbert, talent coordinator for television's "Dance Fever," recently chose three couples to go to Hollywood.

An audition was held at Peppers Disco in Waterford Township, where 65 couples previously danced for the final audition. Mr. Gilbert and other judges were so impressed with Oakland County dancers, who came from Oscar's in Southfield, Paddles in Belleville, and Peppers, that they awarded three couples an all-expense-paid trip to Hollywood.

The judges observed 17 couples and finally narrowed it down to Michael Leach, Carol Rousseau, Barry Douglas, Anjou Jas, Robert and Dandelita McCoy.

The couples were judged on creativity, originality, execution, appearance and showmanship. The winning couples now have an opportunity to compete on "Dance Fever" with couples from all over the U. S. for possible movie contracts plus cash prizes.

String quartet performs p.m. chamber music

The Renaissance String Quartet will perform at 11:30 p.m. Friday, July 20, at the Birmingham Unitarian Church in Bloomfield Hills.

Friday's performance will be the first of a chamber music series called "Nightcap with Mozart," sponsored by Renaissance Concepts, Inc. Doors open at 11 p.m. at which time wine and other beverages will be served.

The members of the quartet are Misha Rachlevsky and Linda Smith on violins, Philip Porbe, viola, and Timothy Butler, cello. The first piece they will play is "Eine Kleine Nacht-Musik" by Mozart.

Following the concert, the audience will be able to meet and talk with the performers. For more information and reservations, call 851-8934.
