

Observer & Eccentric

NEWSPAPERS

Second Annual

Color Photo Contest

Theme:
"The Year of the Child"

1979 has been designated the International Year of the Child. No matter how diverse the lifestyle of Observer & Eccentric readers, one common experience is shared: We have all been children.

We ask you, then, to think back to the days of childhood to discover those things that made growing up special to you. All you need to do is search the face of the nearest child, and you will find that those same special experiences haven't really changed.

Then, tell us—through the eyes of your camera—what's so special about growing up in the suburbs. All you need is some slide film, a camera and a child (or children) doing what comes naturally.

You'll find them at carnivals, shopping centers, playgrounds and quiet river banks.

Since there is no age limit to our contest, children who enter may have an added advantage, since they don't have to resort to memory to tell us what's special about growing up in the suburbs.

We will publish the winning entries—in color—right here on the pages of your hometown newspaper.

Contest Rules:

- 1 There are no age limits, but the photographer must be a resident of one of the communities in which Observer & Eccentric Newspapers circulate.

- 5 All entries become property of Observer & Eccentric Newspapers and CANNOT BE RETURNED.

- 7 Entries will be judged by a panel of Observer & Eccentric reporters, editors and photographers. Winners will be judged on the basis of originality, use of color and adherence to the theme.
