

Cunninghams Make Home In Plymouth

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis R. Cunningham are making their home in Plymouth following their recent marriage in the Newburg United Methodist Church of Livonia.

The bride is the former Denise Lynn Greenwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Greenwood of Alton Avenue, Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cunningham of Ann Street, Plymouth, are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. William Ritter performed the ceremony.

GIVEN BY HER FATHER in marriage, the bride wore a traditional white gown with sequin and pearl embroidery and a fingertip veil secured by a crystal crown. She carried white carnations and blue forget-me-nots.

Her attendants' gowns were in varied shades of blue, and all carried pink forget-me-nots and red roses. Maid of honor Debra Greenwood, sister of the bride, wore royal blue. Lisa Cunningham, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and the bride's sister, Kim Greenwood, was junior bridesmaid. The flower girl was another sister, Nancy Greenwood. All wore lighter shades of blue.

ASSISTING the bridegroom were Larry Cunningham as best man and ushers James Greenwood Jr., brother of the bride, Dennis Trammell, Jim Weiss and Pete Terpesia.

Randy Greenwood was ring bearer.

The bride's mother chose a mint green gown for the occasion and the bridegroom's mother was in peach chiffon.

After a reception for 200 in the church hall, the couple left on a northern Michigan honeymoon.

MRS. DENNIS CUNNINGHAM (Denise Greenwood)

Both are graduates of Plymouth High School. The bridegroom attended Schoolcraft Community College and is employed by the city of Plymouth engineering department.

Healthy Skin

There is no substitute for healthy, shining skin. One of the things that keeps skin healthy is a minimum of makeup. Most makeups can clog pores—hiding dirt rather than getting rid of it. A light liquid foundation, applied with a dampened sponge, is best.

BrightenPewter

Modern pewter pieces need only a gentle cleansing with soap or detergent suds, a good rinsing and a soft rubbing with an old cloth. No special metal polish is needed.

St. Peter Is Setting For Rites

Suzanne Marie Covach became the bride of John Walter Doherty in an afternoon ceremony Saturday, Nov. 29, in St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran Church of Plymouth.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John Covach of Auburn Avenue, Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gehrs of Eau Claire.

The Rev. Leonard J. Koeniger officiated and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDE wore a white satin gown with bodice and sleeves of imported Danish lace. Her veil was elbow-length and she carried a nosegay of white carnations and yellow roses.

Cynthia Hooks of Plymouth, aunt of the bride and maid of honor, wore a moss green velvet gown with vanilla lace bodice and sleeves and carried bronze mums and yellow roses.

In similar gowns were the bridesmaids, Susan Ness of Gibson, Minn., Carol Hem of Racine, Wis., and Kathy Covach of Plymouth.

The flower girls were Suzanne Billingham of Eau Claire and Laurie Hooks of Livonia, and Paul Simek of Eau Claire was ring bearer.

JOHN HORSECH of Wellington, Kans., was best man. The guests were seated by Jack Smith of Niles, John Ray of South Bend, Ind., Sam Billingham of Eau Claire and John Covach of Plymouth.

The reception was held in the church parlor.

After a honeymoon in Acapulco, the couple will live in Alexandria, Va., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Air Force. His rank is staff sergeant.

The new Mrs. Doherty is a graduate of the Michigan Lutheran Seminary and Dr. Martin Luther College in New Ulm, Minn.

Bride Chooses Hoop Skirt Gown

Denise G. Van Saw wore a hoop-skirt gown fashioned with four tiers of lace when she spoke her marriage vows to Owen H. Lashbrook recently in St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, Livonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Van Saw of Livonia and Mr. and Mrs. Owen H. Lashbrook of Livonia are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Wilfred Koelplin officiated for the candlelight service and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE LACE BRIDAL GOWN featured long sleeves and a square neckline accented with iridescent pearls. A pearl crown held the bride's shoulder-length illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white mums and stephanotis with an orchid center.

Mrs. Teri Williams was maid of honor for her sister. Her gown featured a long-sleeved bodice of beige lace and a gold skirt.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Kathy Young, Mrs. Nina Klein, Darlene Roberts and Vicki Gagnon, wore similar gowns with skirts of avocado green, and all carried bronze mums with orange streamers.

JACK GAGNON was best man and the guests were seated by Phil Sheiman and Marc Williams, brothers-in-law of the bride, Warren Lashbrook, brother of the bridegroom, and Russell Hall.

Mrs. Van Saw chose a brown ensemble featuring bronze sequins, and Mrs. Lashbrook's chiffon dress was aqua.

The reception for 250 guests was held in Roma Hall and the couple went to Niagara Falls and New York for the honeymoon. They are living in Dearborn.
