Clarenceville School Notes.

Last week the civil government class organized a township government, two caucuses, one republican and one democratic were held and candidates placed in nomination. This was followed by a practical campaign in which a number of good speeches were made. Friday we held an election and seven republicans and two democrats were elected to office. Today the supervisor, assisted by the clerk and two of the justices of the peace are taking the assessment roll.

Those in the First grade who were neither tardy nor absent for the month of January are Jack Chapman, Roy Reynolds, Frank Tyler, Ralph Eckles, William Bates, Roy Chapman, Raymond Barnes, Dorothy Barnum, Roger Holley, Olive Teagan, Ruth Waack and Earl Chapman.

We are glad to have Minnie and George Erlenbach back after a long absence.

We were very sorry to lose Louis Schroeder, who moved to Detroit. He was one of our jolly classmates.

The Second and Third graders made a ring of keys of manners, and learned a poem to rhyme with each key.

Jack Chapman of the First grade was winner in a race of arithmetic of that class on Friday.

SALESMANSHIP

Is the ability to convince the other fellow of the value of your goods, thereby creating in his mind the desire of possession. If a man desires an article he will move heaven and earth to obtain it.

Good stationary is one of the best salesmen a business man can have.

When in the market for LETTERHEADS, STATEMENTS, CIRCULARS, BOOKLETS ETC., ETC., it will pay you to see us, as we can give you that combination of ink, paper, and experience which will help you to sell YOUR GOODS.

Motor With Comfort—In a Ford Sedan

WHEN you ride in a Ford Sedan or Coupe, you ride in comfort—weather holds no fear for you. A minute and your car is transformed. Windows down, windshield open—the Ford Coupe or Sedan affords the coolness and breeziness of the open car. Windows up windshield closed—and you are protected from rain, wind, sleet or snow.

And bear this in mind. The Ford Sedan costs you no more than the ordinary open car. In fact, the Ford Sedan costs you less to buy, war tax included, than any touring car manufactured in the United States, except, of course, the Ford. Compare the prices yourself.

Come in—let us show you the Ford Sedan or Coupe. Better get order in now while prompt delivery is possible. And never forget the matchless "Ford After-Service" is given Ford owners by Ford dealers means the continuous use of your car.
