We had 197 at the biggest and best Christmas dinner-dance yet. After various cocktail parties in the village all gathered in good season in the Plum Hollow Golf Club to visit there a while before sitting down to a wonderful roast beef dinner. Then dancing began to Jimmy Brown's fine combo. During the dancing Jimmy and his group started "happy birthday" to which we all joined. It was Harriet Goldman and Jim O'Brien's birthday and my mother's. The fact that we had such a large contingency from the Hills helped greatly to make this such an outstanding event.

JUST THE PREVIOUS DAY, Dec. 11, 67 enjoyed Women's Association annual Christmas luncheon, held this year in the Bloomfield Hunt Club.
Nancy Brassart was chairman and Nancy Valassis co-chairman. With the assistance of a very able committee they arranged the Christmas decorations, selected a delicious luncheon menu, and the interesting program that followed thanks to the Krussas.
Roy Brown, training director at their State College of Beauty and recently elected cosmetologist of the month, did very charming hairdos for four of our members, Nancy Brassart, Maxine Carlson, Ginny Swift, and Aileen Dorman.

AFTER SEEING this exceptionally fine work it is not surprising that Clark Kruse has been opening new businesses in Indiana.
While he was there on business Margaret flew to New York City Monday morning for a three-day visit with her aunt. She flew back Wednesday as she did not want to miss the luncheon.

VERN AND GRACE FISHER spent the first week end of this month in Ann Arbor where they stayed at the Staller Hill Inn.
The Waterloo Hunt Club ball was held there Dec. 6. This year the color award went to an Ann Arbor couple, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCarthy. Wallie Candler, a grandson of Vern and Grace Fisher, played in the Christmas concert at Farmington Jr. High School. Wallie plays the guitar.
Vincent J. Farris Jr. graduated from the College of Business Administration at Michigan State University on Dec. 6. He will go into business with his father.
Alan Goldman is going out to the Rose Bowl game. Alan is now a junior in the University of Michigan Medical School, and wants to look into hospitals in California with the thought of

2 Killed In Mishap
Hazardous driving conditions caused by an early-morning light snowfall claimed two lives Thursday at an intersection near Eight Mile Road just east of Northville Road.
Apparently instantly killed, according to Livonia police, were a 19-year-old woman from Farmington and a 21-year-old Northville man.
Dead on arrival at St. Mary Hospital, at 2 p.m., were the pair, identified as Eugene Charles Karrer, of 4709 S. Chighidden Dr., Northville, and Maureen Anne Cinciollo, of 25850 Dupas Court, Farmington.
Livonia police said Karrer was driving west on Eight Mile Road when he apparently lost control on the slippery pavement.
