June 9, 1883, by which Webster was to be given royalty of 3 cents on each copy of the hymn sold by the company.

"It is no matter, it will be all right by and by," was the reply. The remark acted as a flash of inspiration to them both.

The SANDWICH STORE

TWO WOODEN DOLLS.

ONCE in a shop window hung by a string a little wooden Girl-Doll, and not far away by a string hung a little Wooden Boy-Doll.

"I am above you," she said, "but you are never my equal."

But one day, when all seemed lost to the Boy-Doll, for Jumping Jack had been sold and now there was nothing to keep Girl-Doll and Boy-Doll apart, the spring that held Girl-Doll broke and down she tumbled right beside Boy-Doll.

Girl-Doll looked up at Boy-Blue, but he did not lower his head; she was too far beneath him to be noticed.

"That night, when all was still, Girl-Doll sat close to Boy-Doll, for the shopkeeper had placed her there. It is very pleasant down here," she said.

Americans a Most Thriftless People

NEW YORK.—That the United States is one of the most thriftless nations on earth, and that the average American is incompetent and reckless in the spending of his cash, are two disagreeable facts recently emphasized by New York banking concerns after an extensive study of thrift as it does not appear in this country.

Without a budget system, our government squanders money wherever and whenever the whims of congress direct it. And our national waste is faithfully imitated by the individual.

At the age of forty-five the number of wealthy persons has fallen to thirty-six, and the number of those who are dependent upon their children, upon relatives, or upon charity for support, is 10.

Wanted: The Baby Given to a Stranger

CHICAGO.—Sometimes you can read between the lines in the "Personal column" of the classified advertising section. Sometimes the story is only suggested—as in the ad that follows:

"He swore to marry me," she said. "He kissed me very tenderly the day my baby was born. He kissed my ring finger and said he would not let me go until I was twenty years old."

"Moonshine" Suggests Jolly Lynching

EVANSTON, ILL.—There used to be a kind that inspired such pep that a rabbit would walk up and spit in a bulldog's eye. The nowadays' kind makes the drinkers' (huh!) hoarse. Anyway, a lynch-party was interrupted by Policeman Robert McCall, right here in the City of Churches.

The four arrested are George Logan, Donald Stewart, Charles Butler and William Miller, all of Evanston. According to the story, McCall gathered from the disoriented remnants of the men, they had been sitting by the road singing, laughing, telling stories, and occasionally taking a dip from a bottle.
