To Sail Globe in a Lifeboat

Three Norwegians Plan Interesting Trip That Will Take About Year and a Half.

ALL ARE TRAINED SEAMEN

Boat Will Have No Covering. Except Canvas Awning to Spread Over the Bunks When It Rains—Boat to Be Sloop Rigged.

New York.—Norwegians are no longer the leading sea rovers they once were, but their adventurous spirit is not yet extinguished. There is a round tower at Newport, built of red stones, a lasting monument to the forgotten visitors to these shores. Who built it no one can tell, but surely not aboriginal Americans for it embodies principles of architecture unknown to them. Anthropologists believe it was built by the Norsemen. Along some evidence to show, found America long before Columbus, as early as the Tenth century. Indeed there is a Norse tradition to that effect.

Adventurous Norwegians.

These considerations are revived by the fact that three young Norwegians now in this city are planning to cross the Atlantic ocean in an open boat and eventually to circumnavigate the globe. They are Capt. Minner Tønning and Mates Othar Peterson and Helge Westerland. Tønning was at work on the Panama canal in 1915, but going home was impressed into the Norwegian navy. Peterson was petty officer on another ship in the same service. Westerland has been in the navy for many years. They are practically stranded here now, and are held up at the club of the Norwegian Master and Mates' association, No. 545 Henry Street, Brooklyn, where their reporter was told their plans. Tønning acted as spokesman while the other two listened and gave assent. Their plans are nearly complete. They have secured a 20-foot lifeboat, built by the Atlantic Life Boat company of South Brooklyn. It is a gift from the company, and while it does not differ from the ordinary lifeboat built for ship use, certain changes have been made to adapt it to the specific purposes for which it will be used.

Will Be Sloop Rigged, having a 20-foot mainmast and a 12-foot topmast, three feet of which will be above the bounds, thus affording a 22-foot sail hoist. Two sets of sails will be carried, one of light canvas for light and moderate weather, and one of heavy canvas for stormy weather. However, they hope to escape stormy weather, except an occasional squall, by sailing in summer time. The boat will have no covering except a canvas awning to spread over the bunks when it rains. Cooking will be done on an oil stove. They will start with a stock for 14 weeks' provisions in the hope of being able to cross the Atlantic within that time.

They will leave Sandy Hook in the near future and steer for the Selby or Azore Islands. From Gibraltar they will go to Suez, Sumatra, the Philippines, Hawaii, California, Panama, pass through the canal and come up the Atlantic coast to New York. The new voyage is expected to take from 10 to 18 months.

$199 FOR "SCIENTIFIC" KISS

California Girl Says Psychiatrist Told Her It Would Develop Demented Faculties.

Los Angeles, Cal.—For illustrating what constitutes a scientific kiss, a fair seeker after advice paid $199, according to testimony in the case of James A. Murdock, who advertises as being the "incomparable" psychiatrist and clairvoyant.

According to Mrs. E. Blackburn, "Billie" was taken to the "incomparable" one for a treatment, the said Murdock insisted on her being in a room alone with him.

It was at this juncture, said the witness, that scientific kissing was demonstrated, Murdock professing to be a psychiatrist on the effect of kissing on the brain in developing demented faculties.

Mrs. Blackburn said she paid Murdock $199.

Two Princes Claim Chateau

Historic Building, and Grounds Seized by France During War Is Demanded.

ROYAL HOME TWO CENTURIES

Louis XV. Gave It to Marshal Saxe and Napoleon Presented It to Marshal Berthier—Became Possession of Dukes of Parma.

Paris.—Efforts by two princes of the house of Bourbon-Parma to recover possession of the celebrated chateau of Pärma, which was sequestered by the French government during the war, is one of the most interesting aftermaths of the great conflict. The chateau is more than 400 years old and is one of the most striking and interesting of all the famous feudal establishments of ancient France.

It was one of the 10 most magnificent of these great estates and lies in the valley of the Loire close to the town of Pärma and has about 15,000 acres, part of which is inclosed by walls extending for 40 miles. The building is about 500 feet square with four towers at the corners and a central spiral staircase leading to the double lantern, which dominates the center tower.

Royal Residence Two Centuries. It was built about 1526 and for two centuries was a royal residence. Louis XV. gave it to Marshal Saxe and Napoleon presented it to Marshal Berthier. Eventually it fell into the possession of the duke of Parma.

At the beginning of the war it was owned by Prince Elias of Bourbon-Parma and was sequestered because he was serving in the Austrian army as an attaché of the Austro general staff. Prince Elias is a brother of Zita, wife of the former Emperor Charles of Austria, who lately attempted to regain his throne as king of Hungary.

After the war Prince Elias attempted to recover possession of the estate, but the French courts have just dismissed his claim. This, however, does not settle the question of ownership. For Prince Sixtus also of Bourbon-Parma, brother of Prince Elias, has put in a claim to the ownership of the chateau.

Prince Sixtus does not suffer the disability of Prince Elias, as Sixtus and his brother, Xavier, both offered their services to the French government in the war and being refused on the ground that descendants of the old royal house could not be permitted to fight for France, they both enlisted in the Belgian army, where they served as stretcherbearers. Their bravery in this service was afterward recognized in a French citation.

American will identify Prince Sixtus as the man who received, while the war was still in progress, the famous letter from Emperor Charles of Austria in which he stated that he sympathized with France's aspirations to fight for France, and that in his opinion Belgium should be restored by Germany.

Prince Sixtus turned the letter over to President Poincaré and his publication by Premier Clemenceau created consternation in Germany. Emperor Charles denied its authenticity.

Pollie Bear and Mollie Love met out shopping one morning and immediately forgot all about shopping, time, hungry husbands at home, etc., in a "few minutes' chat."

Just then Alice Gaily passed by. She smiled sweetly at the other, and murmured:

"Good morning."

As soon as Alice had passed on, Pollie turned to Mollie and said:

"I notice Alice doesn't go round boring other people with her ailments as she used to."

"No," smiled Mollie; "she met a man who cured her completely."

"Oooh!" purred Pollie. "Who was he? Was he a doctor?"

"Oh, no," answered Mollie. "She was telling him some of her symptoms, when he remarked, 'It's strange how many of these things afflict people as they begin to grow old.' Since then she has held her tongue about them."

EVERYBODY SEES A CHANGE IN FATHER

Grateful Son Says His Father Looks Like Different Man Since Taking Tanlac.

"My father has suffered from chronic stomach trouble for over twenty years and has paid out thousands of dollars for medicines and doctors," said G. W. Clayton, a well-known Cobb County farmer, living a short distance out of Atlanta, Ga.

"We tried nearly everything trying to cure him and he went off to the Springs, thinking maybe the water might help him, but it just looked like nothing would reach his trouble. Then he tried dieting and lived on liquid food until he almost starved, but even that failed to do him any good and he just kept going from bad to worse."

"I don't guess there ever was a case as stubborn as his, and if there ever was a confirmed dyspeptic he was one of them, and I guess he should have been one yet if it hadn't been for this Tanlac."

"The first we heard of this medicine was when my father saw an advertisement in the papers from parties he knew in Tennessee, who were friends of his and he knew what they said about it was the truth, so he got it right away and began taking it. Well, sir, it acted just like magic—everybody notices the change in father. Why, he is just like a different man and sits down to the table and eats like a farmhand. Only yesterday he ate pork and turnips for his dinner and ate so much we were actually afraid he was going to overdo the thing, but he laughed and said nothing hurt him now and that he was hungry and expected to eat and make up for lost time."

"Now, when a medicine will do things like that I think people ought to know about it, and I want to say right now that I would not give one bottle of Tanlac for all the other medicines and health resorts in the country put together."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.
