It happened in this way Mr. For me night went for chickens to a farm a long way from me that the poultry house door was open and it was easy enough to get all he wanted, for Mr.

The only trouble was that he had possed in the way from the decided that was easy enough to get all he wanted, for Mr.

The only trouble was that he had possed in the way from the decided that he would be the power of the carry them to his home and so that was easy from the decided that he would make a bargain with him to take care was one of the carry them to his home and so that was too far to carry them to his home and so that was too far to carry them to his home and wise you show you are, Mr. Owl? Sald Mr. Fox na he came out of Mr.

Fossum, and he decided that he would make a bargain with him to take care with the schickens was to be a far to carry them to his home and wise you shull be called from this day."

As I told you, this happened long hefore aft. For was clever; he would not do such a thing now.

So he called on Mr. Possum and told him if he would take care of the chickens he would give him two fine roces to pay for his kindness.

Mr. Possum sat he would and that he would store them safely away under a rock by his house where there was a cave.

Mr. For totted back and forth all right with far chickens which he put in the cave under the rock, but he did words at one safe; we didness that he put in the cave under the rock, but he did words at one safe; we would not know that as fast as he put them away Mr. Possum carried them to as well and the put of the part of the woods.

"SIT" AND "ET."

PROBABLY it is impossible to teach the great impority by Americans the difference between "two words "sit" and "set," but gran. inglans have been trying to do so fe immy years. "Come in and set dow." says one's host. He is hospitable, but his grainman is faulty. He shot d say, "Come in and set down." Whether as hen one to an a nest or sits, on it is not certait, it igrainman, since the pcint is diep tied, but it is quite certain that you, do not "sit" a hea on her nest; you "set" her there. It is incorrect to say: "The visse sets on the table"; say, first die, "the diagnole is set firmly in its socket. 1.. Saul's Training as a Pharisee Acts 22:3,3; 26:4,5).

1. Saul's Training as a Phaitse (Acts 22.34; 20:44).

3. Taught to love his own nation. It am a Jew." The Phartsees were the nationalists of their day. These who are intelligently loyal to their own nation can more effectively help pithess.

2. Taught to love God's law. "Taught according to the perfect number of the law of the fathers." Love for the Holy Scriptures is a valuable asket in 11fe. One may mising-pret it and dangerously misapply it, but if he has love in his heart for it there is hope of getting him to come into rishr relationship to it.

3. Was "zenious "sealous" significant of the word so was a passion for God and the control of the word so was a passion for God and timede Saul think of and plan for his work. This zeal for God expressed litself in persecution of the Christians whom he regarded as doing that which was contrary to God's law and purpose. He spared neither age nor sex, even to imprisonment, and death (Acts 22:4).

1933. 10).

In his conscientiousness he opposed Jesus, for he regarded Him as an impostor. Saul 1s to be commended in that he responded to his conscience, but he is to be condended in that he responded to his conscience, but he is to be condended in that he responded to his conscience, but he is to be condended for his artitude toward Jesus; for there was don's Son and came in fulfillment of the Scriptures. The resurrection of Christ was such an outstanding impacture of the Detty of Christ, that there was no room left for doubt, 1111, Stephen's Martyrdom (Arts. 17. 54; 8:33).

In order to understand the significance of his marryrdom we must obtain a synthetic view of his life.

11. Who Stephen's Martyrdom we must obtain a synthetic view of his life.

12. Why Stephen was (91:7). He was one of the seven who were appointed to look after the temporalities of the church.

Are Corns a Luxury.

When Is a luxury tax? Representative Anron S. Kreiter tells this story:
A woman went into a restaurant and ordered a plate of lee cream, and when she came to pay, she had a chieck for 15 cents and 2 cents was added to it.

She asked: "What does that 2 cents men PW ell," she was told, "15 cents for you'lee cream and 2 cents luxury tax."

She neld it.

your lee cream and 2 cents luxury inx."

She pald it, and then she walked across the street to the drug story and asked for a corn plaster, and she got a check for 10 cents, and 1 cent added. She said: "What is the 1 cent for?" "That is she luxury, fur, "is said: "this is the first time 1 ever knew that corns were a luxury."

Now that is the way it goes. There are a great many things to be considered in discussing tax propositions.—From the Nation's Business.
