

TELL 'EM TO SEE ME, SAYS TOWNS

Every Time I Sit Down to a Juicy Steak Now I Give Thanks to Taniae, He Declares.

"Every time I sit down to a juicy steak now I give thanks to Taniae for taking me off that milk and mush diet I had to live on for a year," said Joseph R. Towns, the well-known and popular proprietor of the Sanitary Meat Market of Marshall, Mich.

"I had stomach trouble of the worst sort and was going down hill so fast I thought I would have to give up my business. I was so nervous and worried I dreaded to see night come, as it meant little for me and then in the morning I was so fagged out I dreaded to go to my market.

"The money I spent for Taniae was the best investment I ever made. I never dreamed a medicine could do the work I did for me. Three bottles was all I needed to make me as sound as a dollar. I never felt better or more like working in my life than I do right now. I eat anything I want, my stomach is in good shape and I am brimful of energy. I sleep all night without turning over and get up in the morning as happy as a boy.

"Not only has Taniae made me feel fit and fine, but I have also gained twenty-five pounds in weight. If anybody wants to know more about what I think of Taniae let them come to me and I will be glad to tell them. It certainly hasn't cost a cent!"

Taniae is sold by leading druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

Inquisitive Lillian.
Lillian, four years old, had attended Sunday school and heard some things she does not understand.

Lillian said: "Mother, what is the soul?"

Mother replied: "Child, the soul is the mind, the part of you that thinks."

There was silence for a little bit and then Lillian said: "Mother, how will you get wings fastened on to the mind?"

Mother did not answer. After a short silence Lillian said: "Mother, is God and Central the same?"

By this time father had begun to take notice and answered: "Not in our town."

Question.
"Yes, the doctor is treating me."
"To what?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Philadelphia Honors Heroes Who Died in War

To do honor to the memories of 26 men killed in the war, whose bodies were brought back to Philadelphia, the city held special funeral ceremonies over the body of Private Raymond D. Greeley, chosen by lot. The photograph shows the transfer of the casket from the caisson to the bier in the city hall where it lay in state.

FUN IN HOT WEATHER

Doesn't this look good to those who are sweating in summer heat? The picture was made only a few days ago and shows Miss Catherine Reed embracing her snow man on top of Mt. Washburn in Yellowstone National park.

Miss Phoebe Fairgrave, eighteen years old, of St. Paul, Minn., broke the world's mark in a 15,200 feet parabolic drive. In the photo with Miss Fairgrave were V. C. Ombic, pilot, and Paul Goinshorburgh, official recorder for the Minneapolis Aero club. She fell five thousand feet before the parachute opened. She said the experience was terrific and that she hoped that on one would break the record so that she would have to make a new one.

"World Flag" and Its Designer

Displaying the "world flag," Dr. J. W. Kim, of Youngstown, Ohio, staged a "one-man parade" on Pennsylvania avenue, Washington. The flag which he designed was made by his wife and he intends to offer it to the nations of the world at the forthcoming conference in Washington as a world standard. He presented a small "world flag" to President Harding.

GAVE VILLAGE SECOND NAME

Boy's Rejoinder to Puzzled Tourist Responsible for Distinction Enjoyed by Kentucky Hamlet.

"A village in my state," says a Kentucky representative, "had for many years the unique distinction of possessing two names. It received the second but more popular name in this way:
"A stranger who had lost, or thought he had lost, his way, found himself at a point on the turnpike where two ramshackle cottages, a blacksmith and an incongruous postoffice stood. The only human being in sight was the traditional barefooted boy.
"Boy," said the stranger, "can you tell me how far it is to Grandburg?"
"Mister," said the youngster, with admirable sententiousness, "you're plum sock in it."
"And Plum Sock it became and remained."—Exchange.

NO LOSS IN THAT VENTURE

Darkey Get More Out of Garden Than Ever the Owner Was Lucky Enough to Get.

Not long ago a couple of negroes who had long before been neighbors in a southern state rather unexpectedly met in Philadelphia. Of, course, they talked of old times in the South and one of them remarked:
"How 'bout dat truck garden, Joe? When I left you had just taken it over. Did it pay?"
"Well," said Joe, "I didn't have nothing to complain 'bout."
"I always had a mighty poor opinion 'bout dat truck garden," continued the other darkey. "You remember I told you before you got it that you would never get your money back."
"But I did get my money back," returned the other. "I made more outter that garden than the owner ever did."
"You don't say so?"
"I shore does," continued the other. "I got the rest out of it, and that's what the owner never got!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Best Politics

"Do you think a practical politician can afford to place patriotic duty above personal interests?"
"He can't afford to do otherwise," replied Senator Sorghum. "A practical politician is one who succeeds in getting elected; and the voters out my way haven't time use for a man who doesn't love his country."

NOTHING NOVEL ABOUT THAT

Old Joe Had Tried "Electricity" and Found it Was No Cure for Rheumatism.

Old Joe Carter had suffered from rheumatism until, he declared, he had "no patience with it," but he was always eager to hear of possible remedies, and when his sister in Mobile wrote that she knew of a cure that had been tried with great success, and would tell all about it on her next visit, old Joe was all excitement.
"Now, Mary," he exclaimed to his sister, eagerly, a few minutes after she had reached the house, "you-all tell me 'bout dat cure for rheumatism! I was so anxious I could hardly wait for 'ya' to sit 'bout."
"Well, Joe," began the sister, "it's electricity and—"
"Before she could continue Old Joe interrupted:
"De idee, Mary, of 'ya' comin' heah suggestin' dat to me! Don't you-all remember dat only last summer I was struck by lightning, and it didn't do me no 'good'?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Mental butterflying at 2 a. m. A great indoor sport for thoughtless people

One of the surest ways to become physically incapable of doing your best work is to get only snatches of sleep—broken by disturbing dreams.
If your sleep is being disturbed by drinking tea or coffee, you may be sowing the seeds of a nervous breakdown.
Do not wait until your nerves are affected by the drugs, their caffeine, in tea or coffee. Protect your strength, vitality and endurance.
Have sound, restful sleep, and wake refreshed and fit for any task.
Postum, the delicious cereal beverage, with its golden-brown richness and coffee-like taste, will let Nature restore your coffee-irritated nerves, and bring you sound, refreshing sleep.
Postum is wholesome and acts in a normal way. It possesses the advantages of a hot drink, without the ill effects of tea or coffee.
Drink Postum for a week or two. See what a difference it will make in you!
"There's a Reason."
Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) needs instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.
At all grocers.
