Now that the school year has begun—and as under the admirable and time-tested teachers and system of our public schools our children are being fitted for the high and exacting duties of American citizenship, intellectually so to complete the training and development, moral principles and spiritual ideals must be instilled in the minds and hearts—this task is peculiarly the work of the Sunday School.
To the end that all may be fitted for success in life, those children who have no other Sunday School home are cordially invited to join our Sunday School. The public is invited to all services.
