FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1921

TO ENTERPRISE READERS.

Prompted by the faith we have in the future growth and development of the communities surrounding Farmington, we have purchased the Enterprise and it will be our ambition to publish a newspaper that will merit the heartly co-operation and support of the people of this section. We have not come here to serve any set or clique, or to impose our personal likes or dislikes upon our readers. We have come here solely to make The Enterprise a newspaper worthy of the prosperous, growing community it will seek to serve, and the extent of our success will be determined, largely, by the manner in which the people are willing to extend their patronage and support. No individual can make a successful newspaper. It requires a community of interests—a desire and a willingness to help, and with that assistance from the people of Farmington we shall make The Enterprise a worthy representative of every movement having for its object the upbuilding and improvement of the community.

We shall strive to improve the paper as business will warrant and opportunities present themselves. Upon that basis we solicit the co-operation of all our patrons.
Peter L. Perkins and C. G. Grant will remain in our employ and any courtesies shown them will be appreciated.

"YOUR HOME PAPER WEEK."

Next week will be observed as "Subscribe for Your Home Paper Week," and it seems altogether fitting that we should have at least one week in the year to call special attention to the advantages of being a regular reader of the country weekly.

This paper, like every other newspaper in the country, has boosted and boomed everything and everybody for years past—every project for the community betterment has had willing support in the home paper—and now the public is to be given an opportunity to boost and boom their home paper.

If you enjoy the weekly visits of this paper, tell your neighbors about it, and if you are not a regular subscriber you will find the the coming week a good time to join our family. Every family in this section ought to take their home town paper—and if you are loyal to your home town and its institutions you will do so.

No other agency does as much for the whole community as the local paper and you ought to regard it a privilege to give it your heartly and loyal support. Let's make next week a special occasion for "gathering in" of all those who are not now subscribers to this paper. Your help will be appreciated and in return you will be doing your neighbor and your community a friendly turn.

MILLIONS AND MORALITY

Almost as regularly as clockwork we read in the daily press where some millionaire is suing his wife for divorce, or is being sued himself, or both.

Usually there follows a mass of moral filth that is amazing and almost beyond belief. Like dirty linen, it all comes out in the wash, but unlike the linen, the principals can hardly lay claims to purity as a result of their legal bath.

This is a queer world.

As long as we are poor we are able to live comparatively decent lives. But let great wealth come our way and we immediately begin to yearn for the vices and frivolities it will buy.

It would be far better for the human race if we were to forego a majority of the "pleasures" of wealth and retain the respectability that is inherent in mankind in the days of his poverty.

Millions and morality do not always harmonize.

AWAITING THEIR PREY

Great Memorizer.

Wonderful powers of memorizing facts are possessed by a Yorkshire (England) laborer, who has mentally stored away 21,000 items of general information.

Only One Right Action.

There can no more be two kinds of right action than there can be two kinds of straight lines.—Herbert Specter.

Emeralds in Atec Treasures.

Among the Aztec treasures of Mexico exquisitely cut emeralds were found and it is from this source that the magnificent emeralds now forming a part of the royal collection of Spain were supposed to have come.

"Fiasco" Meant Failure.

Fiasco is the Italian word for a battle or flask. It is said that the Venetian glassblowers, when they discovered a flaw in the bulb would convert it into an ordinary flask or fiasco, whence fiasco came to mean a failure.

Picked Up on the Road.

Keep the engine clean.
Flush the radiator occasionally.
Wash the car with a light stream and a sponge.
Keep spark well advanced and save gas.
Test your valve springs for strength.
Every knock is a warning. Attend to it.
A pint of gasoline can evaporate in 24 hours.
Grease the wheel bearings at intervals.
Gasoline sold for 6 cents a gallon in 1898.
The first four cylinder car was made in 1900.
Investigation shows the average car is junked after running 60,000 miles.
Dirt between the brake drums and bands may cause the brakes to squeak.
Direct spotlight to the right.
Raining? Use tire chains for safety.

Scotland, the "Land o' Cakes." "Land o' Cakes" is a name given to Scotland, where oatmeal cakes form an important article of diet, especially among the lower classes. The phrase was made famous by Robert Burns in 1789, in his poem "On Capt.
Grose's Peregrinations Through Scotland."

Real Value of Ideals.

Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands, but, like the seafaring man on the desert of water, you choose them as your guides, and, following them, you reach your destiny.

A Big Ticker.

London people like to keep their clocks and watches with "Big Ben" because it is the accurate timepiece of Great Britain. It is also the large-est clock in the world. It is wound by machinery which looks powerful enough to drive a steamship, and it takes two men several hours three times a week to wind it up and keep it in order. The hour figures are two feet long on the dial of Big Ben.
Its hour hand is made of gun-metal and its minute hand, which is 11 feet long, is of copper. The pendulum of Big Ben weighs 700 pounds and is 18 feet long.

Home-Made Fruit Bowl.

If you have an old wooden bowl that is not in active use, purchase some shellac and some paint, dark shades are preferable, and give it a coat of paint first. When thoroughly dry, shell-lac it. The result will be a very attractive fruit bowl. If you understand the art of painting flowers or know how to make pretty borders, this will make the bowl more attractive.—Thrifty Magazine.

Perfectly Clear.

We have to thank a cheerful dean for this little bit of society letter writing by a clergyman who took the wrong hat away from last night's party: "Mr.
A presents his compliments to Mr. B and he has a hat which isn't mine. So if you have a hat that isn't his doubtless they are the ones."—Sketch.

Efficiency in the Kitchen.

"This thing of being efficient is a right," observes an expert, "but it cabe carried to extremes. I know a young couple who landed in divorce court all because they were trying to pin an efficiency kitchen, and couldn't agree on whether the stove or the was the center of activity."—Fred ly in the Nation's Business.
