FUGITIVE OFFICIAL BELIEVED FOUND

CALIFORNIA POLICE HOLD FORMER VAN BUREN ROAD COMMISSIONER.

SHOCKED PAW PAW SOCIETY

Muddled Accounts and Disappearance of Dentist's Wife Discovered At About Same Time.

Paw Paw, Mich.—The arrest in lower California of Charles P. Cox, former Van Buren county road engineer, wanted for embezzlement, is expected shortly, Sheriff Dwight Barker here was advised Monday.

Arrest of Cox will end a country-wide search inaugurated last December when he vanished, leaving the Van Buren road department top-heavy.

In connection with which the county has offered a $2,000 reward. Cox's disappearance not only stirred county officials to action, but it shook Paw Paw's society leaders when, simultaneously, Mrs. Wilma Racette, 30, wife of Dr. Felix A. Racette, a dentist here, vanished.

Cox took with him his seven-year-old son, Maynard, while Mrs. Racette had with her, Eileen, six-year-old daughter. Dr. Racette and Mrs. Hazel Cox held a consultation over the situation that left them mother and childless. They decided to ask authorities to apprehend the couple, but without publicity. Dr. Racette believed Cox had persuaded his wife to go automobiling and that she would return. He said he was willing to take her back.

After three months, Dr. Racette decided that he would divorce his wife. A decree recently was handed him by the Van Buren county circuit judge. Mrs. Cox has not instituted divorce proceedings.

Sheriff Barker was instructed by the supervisors to institute search for Cox. He had police circulars printed, which contained photographs of Cox, Mrs. Racette and their children. These were sent broadcast.

Sheriff Barker has just received word from a town in lower California that Cox had been seen in the vicinity and that he had been unsuccessful in an attempt to cross the border into Mexico. He wired back to apprehend Cox and hold Mrs. Racette if she were with him. The supervisors have renewed the $2,000 reward.

Cox and Mrs. Racette with their children, drove from Paw Paw last December 17, in a big touring car. Cox had just purchased. He left at Kalamazoo and boarded a train in said.
