

The Spirit of Thankfulness

should pervade every heart, not only at this season of the year, but all the time because all classes are coming to a better understanding of their need for each other.

Our greatest source of THANKSGIVING is the fact that our patrons recognize our desire and ability to serve them faithfully.

—Take Advantage of the High Price of Eggs.—

Today one dozen eggs are worth as much as 1½ bushels of oats, more than one bushel of shell corn, and two dozen eggs will buy a bushel of wheat. Grains for poultry are down to the 1914 prices, while eggs are selling at war prices. The reason for this is people do not understand how to make them lay the year round. In order for the poultry-keeper to take advantage of the low-priced grains and high-priced eggs, it is necessary that he use the most efficient egg-producing feeds. Experts advise to feed only at the ratio of 12-lbs Scratch Feed to 100 hens per day but keep a happier full of Egg Mash before the flock at all times.

We carry a full line of Globe, Krause and Surene Scratch and Mash Feeds.

VOICES

By Emanuel G. Frank

There's a wondrous thrill of pleasure
When you see the form and face,
Of some loved one in whose presence you rejoice;
But the joy there is in seeing
Can't compare with what takes place,
When you hear the magic music of her voice.

Be it mother, wife or sweetheart,
Be it sister, daughter, friend,
As within your waiting vision each appears;
While your heart may leap to see them
What is better in the end,
Than their eager voices sounding in your ears.

But remember as you listen
That these sweet and nameless thrills,
Find an echo and an answer rich and true,
In the hearts of cherished loved ones
Which alone your voice fulfills;
For when all is said, your voice is really you.

So when travel takes you from them
Let them feel how much you care,
Let them know you haven't left them all alone;
Let them feel in fullest measure
You, yourself, are standing there;
Let them hear the voice they cherish through
[the phone.]

DON'T FORGET—OUR CHRISTMAS EDITION OUT THE 16TH OF DECEMBER

Benjamin Franklin's Thrift.
The thrift of Benjamin Franklin is reflected in his will, in giving his daughter his "King of France" picture, set in 104 diamonds, he requests, "that she would not form any of those diamonds into ornaments either for herself or daughters, and thereby introduce or countenance the expensive jewels in this country. He concludes his will with this clause: 'I would have my body buried with a little expense or ceremony as may be.'" writes E. A. Hungerford in the Thrift Magazine.

The Seven St. Epens.
The story concerns seven Christian youths of Ephesus, imprisoned by order of the Emperor Diocletian in a cave in which they sought refuge, and where they fell asleep for nearly 200 years, awaiting to find a new civilization. They then related their story to the multitude, gave them their benediction, and expired. The Church consecrated June 27 to their memory.

Lays Progress to the "Kicker."
The reasonable man adapts himself to the world; the unreasonable one persists in trying to adapt the world to himself. Therefore, all progress depends on the unreasonable man.—Bernard Shaw.
