Took Mate With Him in Death.

For many years a pair of swans lived on the lakes in the grounds of Meldrum house, Aberdeenshire, Scotland. One day the male swan, who was getting lame and evidently feeling his age, while sailing along with his mate, seized hold of her head and held her under water until she died. Shortly after he himself was found dead near the same spot.

A Holiday Message

We, with Santa, express the wish that your fondest hopes for the holiday season be fulfilled.

And may we, the people of the Telephone Company, also thank you for your co-operation during 1921.

The helpful spirit which you have shown has and will continue to inspire each of us to do our utmost to keep your telephone service good.

SPECIAL Subscription OFFER

In order to introduce The ENTERPRISE in many homes in this section we have decided to make the following very generous offer to NEW SUBSCRIBERS RESIDING IN OAKLAND AND WAYNE COUNTIES:

We will send The ENTERPRISE (to new subscribers only) until

MAY 1st, 1922 for Only 35c

The paper will be stopped at the expiration of the subscription period unless ordered continued so no one need be fearful that it will be crowded upon them.

Tell your neighbors of this big offer and urge them to subscribe.

The merchants and business men of Farmington are urged to co-operate in this matter and help to extend the circulation of The Enterprise.

Remember NEW SUBSCRIBERS ONLY.

MAY 1st, 1922 for Only 35c

IN OAKLAND AND WAYNE COUNTIES.
