

The Plain Truth

Some times the truth may be spoken in jest, but it doesn't cause half as much trouble as the lies that are spoken in earnest.

We may jest once in a while in our advertisements, but in telling you of our excellent Banking Service, of our desire to accommodate the public, of the advantages you may obtain by keeping your account at our bank, in all these things we are soberly, truthfully in earnest. We want your business and stand ready to merit it by faithful, efficient, dependable service.
