

Rather Serious

After a political defeat, Abe Lincoln once said that he felt like a boy who had stubbed his toe. It hurt too bad to laugh and he was too big a boy to cry.

Sort of a serious situation. Many a man feels that way after taking a financial tumble, too. The best way to avoid disaster of that sort is to keep your funds in a good bank like ours and use it for making safe investments suggested by your banker. It is always much better to be safe than sorry. Our bank is always at your service.

Clarenceville School Notes.

Exams are over for another month.

We are reading the life of H. Keller for morning exercises.

We have been using about 90 half-pint bottles of milk in school each day.

Miss Howie is supplying the Kindergarten this week during the absence of Mrs. Schaeper.

Charles Myers was bit by a dog last week. Charles now visits the doctor every afternoon.

We had a stereopticon lecture on Japan and the Silk Culture of that Country, on Wednesday morning of last week.

The boys have about completed the stage for our home talent play, "Deacon Dibbs" which will be presented at the school house Thursday, April 6th.

Winifred Chamberland is out of school this week on account of burns received when she upset a teapot of boiling tea. We hope she will be able to return soon.

We had a Mr. Phillips speak at morning exercises Thursday morning. Mr. Phillips is a veteran of the Civil war and gave us a very enjoyable and instructive talk discussing some battles which he was in, also telling of Custer's last stand. He also gave some Indian war whoops.

The operetta, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, held at the school house last week Thursday and Friday was a great success. The children all did fine, and the teachers in charge, Miss Habermehl and Mrs. Chroux, are to be congratulated. The proceeds are to go toward buying playground equipment, which is very much needed.

WALLED LAKE NEWS.

William Lare is building a garage on his property.

The last lecture course was given Saturday night.

The Embroidery club met with Mrs. Ray Riley Wednesday.

Ned Coste and family are moving into the rooms over the hardware.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Timlin entertain their pedro club on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heliker spent Friday with Marley Bachelor and family.

Mildred Geigler has returned to school after being absent two weeks with the mumps.

Revival meetings are being held in the I. O. O. F. hall every Sunday, Tuesday and Friday evenings.

There was a concert held at the Walled Lake Baptist church Tuesday evening. Supper was served after the concert.

August Berlin is making some repairs on the house he recently bought of the Meyer estate. He intends to move there soon and Rev. Brass will live in the Berlin house.

Local News

Mrs. Ed. Tamm has the gripper. Mrs. Edgar Pierce is ill with the gripper.

Groupe No. 2 W.H.M.S. met with Mrs. Lora Ranous Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thayer entertained Mr. and Mrs. Will Pagel on Sunday.

Carl Hatten is spending a few days with his cousin, James Sexton, at Howell.

Thomas Carr of Lansing, was in the village on business Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leach are a little better at this writing but are still very low.

Miss Hill of Webberville, was a Farmington business caller Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Pearl Betting of Detroit, spent Wednesday with her friend, Mrs. John Graham.

John Graham and family have all been sick with what appears to be summer complaint.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dillworth of Detroit, were Sunday guests at the home of Herman Riddle.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sprace of Milford, spent Sunday with Mr. Clarence Bick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry visited her sister, Mrs. Frank Deer and family at Novi Friday evening.

Kahl and Tamm of the Park Garage have been appointed distributors for the Standard Oil Co. products in Farmington.

One day last week F. L. Cook, one of Farmington's merchants, received a letter from a business house in Detroit, and he was surprised to note that it was signed by Tracey Bloomer, a son of the founder of the Enterprise. Mr. Cook was at one time in the early life of the paper, an employee in the office.
