

HARDIN PUT BACK ON HIS FEET TWICE

Was Relieved of Both Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble by Tanlac, States Los Angeles Man.

"For the second time Tanlac has put me on my feet, and you may know by that what I think of it," said William T. Hardin, 1409 Garden St., Los Angeles, Calif.

"Three years ago, I had rheumatism in my shoulders and neck so bad I could hardly work. I tried medicine after medicine only to get worse, but finally I got hold of Tanlac, and I haven't had a trace of rheumatism since.

"Then last summer my stomach got out of order. I lost my appetite and what little I did eat made me feel bloated, all stuffed up and miserable. I always felt weak, tired and worn out, and was so nervous I couldn't sleep.

"Well, Tanlac did a good job for me before, so I just got some more of it, and now it has again fixed me up, and I'm feeling strong and energetic like I used to. I'll tell the world Tanlac's the medicine for me."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Publicity Music. "Don't you want the trumpet of fame to sound your name?"

"No," replied Senator Scrogum. "I want to be in touch with my time. I'd rather have my name sounded, if possible, by a saxophone in a jazz orchestra."

Important to Mothers. Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, that famous old remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of W. D. Parke.

Literal-Minded Witness. The prisoner was being cross-examined by counsel for the prosecution, when the judge interrupted.

"You say you dined at the Hotel Metro. What did you partake of?"

"The prisoner turned to reply. "Beersteak, my lord," he said. "The judge looked stern.

"On your oath?" he said. "No, my lord," he said, "on a plate."

About half our time is spent in doing things we ought to have done before.

THANKFUL FOR A LITTLE CHILD

Mrs. Merrick Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Kutztown, Pa. "I wish every woman who wants children would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"I wish every woman who wants children would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has done so much for me. My baby is almost a year old now and is the picture of health. She walked eleven months and is trying to use little tongue. She can say some words and sing you her picture. I shall be thankful as long as I live that I found such a wonderful medicine for my troubles."

Mrs. Lydia E. Merrick, Kutztown, Pa.

Many cases of childlessness are curable. Perhaps yours may be. Why be discouraged until you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a faithful trial?

Speech and written recommendations from thousands of women who have found health and happiness from its use have come to us. We only tell you what they say and what they believe.

We believe that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so well adapted to the conditions which might cause your trouble that good will come to you by its use.

Merrick is the foundation of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This is behind it a record of nearly fifty years.

MARCONI REALLY FATHER OF RADIO

Story of the Gifted Italian's Work in Development of Air Communication.

While experiments along the line of radio really started as far back as 1827 and hundreds of scientists were interested in solving the problem involved for many years, it was not until 1896 when Senator Guglielmo Marconi took out his first patent that the mastery of air communication got its first great impetus.

His life history is a practical history of the history of radio communication.

Senator Guglielmo Marconi, G. C. V. O., L. L. D., D. Sc. M. I. E. E., was born in Bologna, Italy, April 25, 1874. His father was Irish, while his mother was of a family whose mechanical ability was marked.

After an education at Leghorn and Bologna, the young man interested himself in the problem of wireless telegraphy, starting his research in 1895. He went to England and in 1896 took out the first patent ever granted for a practical system of wireless telegraphy, by the use of electric waves.

His early experiments were made at Westbourne Park. Shortly afterward Marconi saw W. H. Preece and at his request made some experiments for officials of the postoffice.

Further experiments were made in May, 1897, in the Bristol channel, wireless communication being established between Lavernock and Brean Down, a distance of nine miles.

On the invitation of the Italian government Marconi afterward went to Spezia where a land station was erected, which was kept in constant communication with two Italian battleships working from a distance of 12 miles.

For this success the Italian government conferred upon Marconi the honor of knighthood. After a return to England further experiments were conducted and on Jan. 20, 1897, the first radio company was formed, and two permanent stations erected.

In 1898 wireless reports of ships were made from the coast of Africa. In 1899 wireless reports of races in Kingston were made and proved the usefulness and adaptability to which the system lends it.

Radio enthusiasts have increased tenfold within the last few months, it appears from a survey conducted by the Associated Press and covering the central west, Kentucky and Texas. At virtually all points from which reports have been received, there are thousands of radio sets, particularly for purposes of telephony, where at most there were hundreds before.

While the sets are used chiefly for pleasure and experience, they are being put to practical uses in many cases. Numerous farmers are receiving the Sense of Perfection.

"Crimson Gulch isn't improving as fast as I thought it would." "The town is kind o' held back by pride and patriotism," replied Cactus Joe.

"Anybody who'd venture to hint that Crimson Gulch needs any improvements would immediately be so unpopular that he'd lose his influence."

Hospitable Sault. "That's the third time this week the kitchen roof of this boarding house has caught fire," grumbled the chief.

"What are you going to do about it?" asked a bystander. "What can we do about it? The landlady had coffee and sandwiches ready when we arrived."—Birmingham, Age-Herald.

Sufficient Indication. "When I see a man playin' checkers three or four hours every afternoon," said Uncle Eben, "I don't need no credit man agency to tell me he don't have no put on a surt on his income."

Sporting Man's View. To him little to show, all to crow gently if in luck—go on, to own up, and to shut up, if he can see the virtues of a sporting gun.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Not Efficient, However. "The language you use to that mule is perfectly shocking." "Yes," replied the veterinarian. "It seems to trouble everybody, but the mule."—Edinburgh Scotsman.

City of Peace. A former city on the site of Jerusalem was called Salem. An Assyrian inscription has been found calling the place Jerusalem which meant "city of peace."

To earn much money a man generally has to earn it the way he likes to.

Cleveland, Ohio, reports probably 15,000 radio sets and 1,000 sending stations in greater Cleveland, virtually all amateur, and 10,000 receiving sets used almost nightly. These estimates exclude commercial sets. Cincinnati reports 500 sets.

Indiana has 4,500 amateur radio sets and Indianapolis 1,000 radiophones. Wisconsin has nearly 1,500 stations, and the number is said by Mateo P. Hanson, University of Wisconsin professor, to be increasing at the rate of five a day. Nearly 1,000 sets are reported in Milwaukee and vicinity.

North Dakota has a number of receiving stations and a few sending stations and a telephone and telegraph and telegraph and telegraph station. The North Dakota Agricultural college is planning to install a 100-watt service for farmers. The vacuum tube is displacing older equipment in the state.

Marked growth is reported at Omaha, Neb., by two radio clubs, which have been in existence only six months. The University of Nebraska and Nebraska Wesleyan, co-operating, send to amateurs in Nebraska, South Dakota, Iowa, Colorado and Kansas,

EXAMPLE OF HIGH FINANCE

Many Who Go Into the Game Come Out of It Feeling Like This Country Boy.

Representative Rosenbloom said at dinner in Wheeling. "The average man had better leave high finance alone. Well, in the average man goes up against high finance he generally feels like the 'country boy' who had a half-dollar and a circus had just come to town; but the cheapest circus ticket cost 75 cents, and this put the 'country boy' in a hole."

"But he was a financier in embryo, and so he went right to a pawnbroker's and pawned his half-dollar for 40 cents."

Afterward he went to a country boy, displayed his pawn ticket, and offered to sell it for 35 cents. A half-dollar for 35 cents! Of course the country boy with his 75 cents then hurried off to the circus.

The country boy, after he had worked out this deal of his in high finance to the bitter end, sought a retired face and kicked himself blunder!

Mixed Drink. He had made several vain attempts to swallow the mixture, but somehow or other, he could not get it down. When at last he did manage to catch the waitress eye he called to her and said:

"There's something funny about this coffee. It tastes like cocoa." The waitress sipped it, made a wry face, and sipped it again, to make sure. "It's sorry," she said. "I've given you tea."—Tribune.

Good Things Go to Waste. A childless couple hired a whole yard of peas which are a delight to the children of the neighborhood. Ellsworth, on his return from there the other day, heaved a wistfully and a family for some little boy to be born into.

The Sense of Perfection. "Crimson Gulch isn't improving as fast as I thought it would." "The town is kind o' held back by pride and patriotism," replied Cactus Joe.

"Anybody who'd venture to hint that Crimson Gulch needs any improvements would immediately be so unpopular that he'd lose his influence."

Simple Explanation of American's Reverent Attitude Toward Relics of Great English Foot.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., said in a Y. M. C. A. address: "A guide was showing a party of tourists over Milton's cottage at Charlton Street, St. Giles."

"This 'ere's 'is chair," said the guide, and an American tipped out from the group of tourists and kissed the chair reverently.

"Say, guide," he said, choking a little. "I'd like to buy those two pieces of furniture for a souvenir. What do you ask for them?"

"They ain't for sale, sir." "Come on now. Name yer price. I'll give you anything in reason."

"No, no, sir. They ain't for sale." And the guide went on. "This is the cane wot the pore blind old man—"

"Blind?" snorted the American. "I wish I had his vision! Blind! Why, you must be crazy, guide."

"Of course Milton was blind," the guide insisted. "Milton?" And the American stamped to the door in disgust. "Milton?" Holy smoke, man, I thought you were talking about Lipton."

Chilean Volcanic Disturbances. The eruptions in Chile last December were attributed to the volcanoes of Quilca and Rincón. They were accompanied by violent earthquakes and it was stated that deep crevices had formed in the mountain sides.

Enormous damage was caused to grazing lands on the Argentine side of the frontier, which for 30 leagues was covered with cinders and volcanic ashes from the erupting peaks, which swept across Argentina, obscuring the plain. Ashes were reported to have fallen all the way across to the Atlantic ocean.

At What Age Should You Take Needless Risks With Your Health?

Is that a queer question? Then many people are doing a queer thing—and often it turns out to be a serious thing.

The Federal Bureau of Education says in its rules for the health of school children that children should not drink coffee or tea.

This rule is based on the well-known fact that the drug element in coffee and tea whips up the nerves, and that serious ills often follow.

If it's a good rule for children to keep away from the harm of nerve-stimulation, isn't it a good rule for everybody?

Think it over. Granted that your body may be and more, can your judgment afford to risk more? Any doctor
