"Our region will be represented by two strong teams. I knew that we just didn't have the depth that 'Troy las an outstanding team, and I think they can take first place at state." It's been tough on us this year, the pressure has really been on us," she said, "Some of the girts could handle it (the pressure), and some of the others couldn't."

TEMPLE WAS outstanding, winning all four regional events and taking the all-around title by almost two full points. Temple scored 35.55 points to beat Royal Oak Dondero's fine freshman Linda Giordano (33.85).

Casillo was third overall with 32.85 points, followed by a pair of Troy grist man Kathy Michaels (32.60) and junior Lisa Boes (32.23). Andover's Missy Otterbein was suth (32.10).

Michele Smith of Troy was infair a was the condition of the second to the high standard of the condition of the second to the high standard of the second to the bear (8.56.85.60). Temple — a junior — beat Royal Condition of the second to the second standard of the second standard of
