Party Marks Golden Wedding

Seventy-five relatives and friends will honor Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Jenkins of Farmington with a golden wedding anniversary party Sunday, Jan. 18 in Clarensville Lodge.

Special blessings will be read at the 11 a.m. mass in St. Alexander Catholic Church before the festivities.

Jenkins, a former City of Farmington employee and his wife have lived in their home at 20508 St. Francis since 1936.

He retired in 1968. Married in Waverly, Ky., in 1920, they are parents of seven children. There are 37 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Their sons and daughters are Mrs. Mattie Givens of Hamburg, Mich.; Thomas Jenkins of Farmington; Mrs. Barbara Liske of Hubbard Lake, Mich.; Mrs. Ann Higgs of Farmington; Mrs. Bobbie Barnes of Farmington; and Roy Jenkins of South Lyon.

Farmington AAUW Sets Annual Dinner

The Farmington branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its annual international dinner at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 21, in St. Paul Lutheran Church, Farmington.

As in other years, the dinner will honor high school foreign exchange students attending school in the Farmington area for a year.

The vocalists will present a program featuring both music and a panel discussion. David Phineas, North Farmington High School faculty member, is working with the exchange students in planning the program and will serve as narrator for the panel.

In the area are Denmark, Finland, Sweden, Germany, Japan, the Philippines and South America.

The dinner to which husbands and special guests are invited, will be a smorgasbord of foreign dishes prepared by AAUW members.

MRS. EUGENE Schoeneich and Mrs. Clayton Timmons are co-chairmen of the hospitality committee.

Their committee includes Mrs. Tad Bury, Mrs. Philip Daniels, Mrs. Walter Frontz, Mrs. Roberta Grumblatt, Mrs. Niek Hattomou, Mrs. Mary Hurd, Mrs. Robert Nelson, Mrs. Donald Nichols, Mrs. Wesley Orr Jr., Mrs. Barry Peetles, Mrs. John Read, Mrs. James L. Spence, Mrs. Wilbur Stenke and Lois Tillet.

MRS. JAMES WORTHINGTON
(Chere Campau)

Couple Wed In Army Chapel

Chere Campau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Campau, 11 Popple Hill Drive, Farmington, was married to Sgt. James Worthington in a chapel extension in the base chapel in Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Worthington of Marlin Drive, Farmington.

Both are graduates of North Farmington High School. The new Mrs. Worthington received a degree in elementary education from Mercy College in Detroit in December 1969.

Her husband attended Oakland University, Detroit, and was employed in the Farmington Township police force before joining the U.S. Army.

He will be stationed in Germany from Jan. 22 until his service tour ends in August and his wife hopes to join him there.

Mink Cuffs Trim Wedding Gown

Valerie J. Steuck chose an ivory brocade gown with white mink cuffs on the long sleeves when she spoke her nuptial vows to Thomas Carlton in St. Paul Lutheran Church, Farmington on Dec. 27.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Bernhard Steuck of Hawthorne Avenue, Farmington, and Mrs. Thomas Carlton of Detroit are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Walter Rutkowski officiated for the single-ring ceremony.

The bride's gown featured a high neckline, empire waist and chapel train. The bride's veil, held by a brocade 'Julie' cap, was shoulder-length and she carried a single white rose.

Three attendants wore floor-length, white velvet gowns with empire waists and puffed sleeves and each carried a single deep red rose.

Mrs. Sandra Steuck of Minneapolis, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Susan LaBaron of Farmington and Diane McCabe of Livonia.

The bride's nieces, Debra Ann and Cindy Lee Steuck of Walled Lake, were flower girls, and the ring bearer was Larry Carlton of Detroit, nephew of the bridegroom.

Assisting the bridegroom were Kenneth VanVeen of Grand Haven as best man and Dr. Gordon Steuck of Minneapolis, brother of the bride, and John Johnson of Detroit as ushers.

The reception was held in the Mayflower Meeting House, Plymouth.

After a Fort Lauderdale honeymoon, the couple planned to live in Chicago. The bride is a senior at Michigan State University with plans to graduate in June, and the bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Detroit.

Conversation Starters

Hard to believe but — Robert Merrill of Crane, Michigan, was out hunting on October 16, 1931.

He had a bad cold and felt the cold in his head exploded and a 22 caliber bullet fired through his head. The bullet performed a most unexpected feat — clearing all Mr. Merrill's sinuses as well as his brain.

Mr. Merrill was a fisherman of Jackson, Michigan, was making a deep while lung in his hole exploded in his face, diving the specimen deep into his mouth. The man performed a perfect feat — clearing the victim's sinuses without surgery.
