Big Ten still rings champlon as a member of the University of Michigans men's gymnastics team.

And this year, Yee's improved scotes and consistency may launch him into national competition at the NCAA championships in April.

The Wolverine gymnast earned his highest ring score ever — a 9.6 in a meet against Stanford and UCLA. In against California and Oklahoma.

"Darrell did a super job for us," said Michigan ceach Newt Loken. "Were looking for even greater success for him as the season continues."

As a sophomore Yee captured the 1979 Big Ten crown with a 9.475, 1979 Big Ten crown with a 9.475 Big Ten crown with a 9.475

Mary Mohacsi, the Livonia house-wife who has reigned as Detroit's bowl-ing queen on four different occasions, made a stong bid over the past week-end to become the city's all-events end to become the city's market.

Bowling in the women's city tournament at Drakethire Lanes she posted a nibe-game count of 1864 to take over top place and her average of 20' is expected to hold up e rest of the way.

So gain her lofty position, she turned in a 650 in the team event, 600 in the doubles and 614 in her singles. These are actual scores and made her the are actual scores and ma woman to beat for the title.

HIGH SCORES were the order throughout the western suburbs during the week and when the firing ceased the 700 club had six new members of the the 100 club had six new members of the sharpshooters' battalion broke the 700 barrier. Two more were added at Westland and the third at Plymouth Bowl. Dick Pray, bowling in the Civic League, set the pace at Farmington when he had games of 239, 245 and 255 for 730. Next in line was Bill Platt when the had gares were well and an odd series while registering a 704. He started with 235, added with another 255 and missed a great triplicate when he failed to strike in the 10th frame of the final and had to be satisfied with 234. The third barrier breaking score was the work of Ray Vanderwill who followed an opening 191 with games of 246 and 256 for 701. Meanwhile, Bob Krueger just missed the magic number in the mixed loop with a 698.

The barrier breakers put on quite a show at Westland and when the firing ended, Mike Lee and Bill Fullyter and the state of the stat a count of 530-81-617 to take the series. In the individual games, Doris Ma-corkindale won the first with 185-33-218, Marion Heath took the second with 220-29-249 and Lois Merriman won the third with 176-25-201.

THEY HAD a great finish in the doubles at MerriBowl where Gloria Mertz and Ruth Thompson deadlocked at 598 for top place and Mary Mohacsi was only one pin back with 597.

In the ladies classic Shirley Karke showed the way with 600, with Barbara Fielding next in line at 596.

LOREN RIGOLE reached one of the high points of his career at Woodland Lanes when he came through with a 289 and 654 to show the way in the Church of the Holy Spirit loop.
