

club circuit

HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB has nominated Mrs. Charles Gunderson for its president in the 1980-81 term. First, second and third vice presidents on the nominating slate are Mrs. David Wemy, Mrs. James Bahna and Mrs. Leslie Pheil.

Meanwhile, members have set Thursday, May 15, for their annual flat sale with a slightly different format than in past springs.

No orders will be taken this year. Flats will be on display in Farmington Community Center. They will be sold on a come and see and pick what you want basis. Hanging baskets will also be on sale.

JUNIOR GARDENERS meet at 6:30 p.m. tonight in Farmington Community Library on Liberty Street for a session on sand painting.

The club is sponsored by Hill and Dale Garden Club and directed by Penny Stairs.

Mrs. Stairs will take membership inquiries by calling her at 476-9463.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS, Farmington Hills

'Weekend of Fitness' program set at Mercy

Vital Options, Inc. sponsors a "Fantastic Fitness Celebration" Friday and Saturday, March 21-22 in Mercy Conference Center, 28600 11 Mile Road, Farmington Hills.

The "Weekend of Fitness" offers women the opportunity to relax and revitalize themselves with a program that includes dancing, swimming, yoga, and diet dynamics.

Participants will have the opportunity to make appointments with a masseuse, hairdresser, manicurist or make-up artist, who will be on hand during the weekend.

Workshop fee is $40 which includes double room accommodations, a Friday evening cheese and fruit snack and breakfast and lunch on Saturday.

Rosemary Pulick will take inquiries and registrations by calling her at Mercy Conference Center, 476-8010.

Chapter, meets at 1:30 p.m. Friday, March 21. Music for afternoon entertainment will be furnished by Mrs. Kerry Price Gower, a pianist and singer.

FARMINGTON AREA NATURALISTS meet at 8 p.m. Monday, March 24, in Farmington Community Center, 24705 Farmington Road.

Program for the evening will be led by Betty and Dick Frankel. Their topic is "People, Places, and Plants of Israel. All meetings planned by the club are open to all persons interested in nature.

FARMINGTON AREA JAYCETTES sponsors an open meeting for prospective members Wednesday, March 26. Women between the ages of 18 and 35 are invited to call Marian Bilzik, 477-6826 for an invitation.

Membership consists of women who are, and those who are not wives of Jaycees.

"Many of the members are career women who belong to Jayceettes, not because their husbands are Jaycees, but rather to satisfy their own need to serve others," said Candy Krumwiede, speaking for the group.

"They serve to improve their communities, to foster their own self-development and a desire to meet other young women."

FARMINGTON HILLS JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB meets at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 26, in the home of Joan MacFarland, 28766 Oak Point. Program for the afternoon will be a film presentation made by a member of Family Focus of Oakland County. Membership inquiries will be taken by Darlene Knight, 661-1848.

THE GATHERING PLACE sponsors a boutique of hand-crafted items from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday, March 27, in Mercy Center, 11 Mile and Middlebelt Roads.

Meanwhile, reservations are being taken now for two trips planned for the area's senior adults.

On Tuesday, April 27, a bus will leave for a tour of the Jiffy Mite Factory in Chelsea, then lunch in Ann Arbor's Gandy Dancer. Total cost is $21.50.

On Friday, May 9, the destination is Ottawa for a four-day tour. Transportation, hotel accommodations and two breakfasts are included in the package price of $189.
