

Coaches prepare girl thinclads for season

people are hurt. They include Kathy Whales (monocle), Cathy Knecht (injured hip), Kathy McDonough (injured shoulder) and Curran Sullivan (leg).

"OUR BIG question mark now is injuries," Kirkland said. "We could have a successful season if some key people get healthy and stay healthy."

"I have a few freshmen who have been looking good in practice, but one of them is hobbling around now with a bad ankle. So, who knows?"

Kirkland has an outstanding sprinter in senior Sherry West, who finished seventh in the state in the 220 with a time of 0:25.6. Beth Bosse, another senior, won the discus at the regional and then finished 10th in the state meet. Her best toss was 115-6.

Other healthy returnees include seniors Rocky Brown (two mile), Carole Basford (quarter mile and mile relay) and Sonya Howett (sprints and 800 relay).

Mercy will be at the Spartan Relays April 12. Mercy's first dual meet is scheduled for April 18 at Dearborn Divine Child.

At Farmington High, another familiar face will be seen around the track this spring, Gerald Young, the longtime boys' track coach until he resigned two years ago, is back to coach the girls' team.

"I'm really enjoying coaching the girls so far," said Young, who is working with 41 girls. "They're so enthusiastic, and they listen to you — which is something new."

FARMINGTON HAS an outstanding long jumper in senior Julie Tadrazynski, who placed second in last year's regional with an 18-8 1/2 leap. Other returnees are seniors Denise Germain (hurdler) and Laurie Krench (distance).

Sophomores Chris Looser and Amy Edwards are "two good-looking quarter milers," said Young. Other prospects: juniors Gloria Murray (sprints) and Sally Schuler (shot put; discuss), and sophomores Kim Fournier (high jump) and Janet McKinnon (sprints), and senior Lori Bond (hurdler).

"We'll be strong in the sprints and the hurdles, even though we don't have any one outstanding person," Young said. "We'll be weak in the sprints and field events."

Farmington opens its season on April 15 at home against Southfield High.

At North Farmington, people are saying that girls' track has had a turnaround under coach Ralph Temby.

This spring, Temby is working with 35 girls, including 18 juniors. Seniors Donna Dumas (sprints), Sue Potter (discus), Joanne Cromwell (800) and Connie Popolis (long jump) have experience from last year.

Experienced juniors include Cheri

Salkeld (distance), Laura Kolodziej (sprints), Nancy Hughes (shot put, long jump), Pam McCann (long jump) and Jennifer Rascher (440).

Last year, North finished tied for fourth in the Northwest Suburban League. The Raiders had a 4-5 dual-meet record.

"I think we'll have a better season as far as the closeness of the meets, even though we may not win any more," Temby said. "We'll be competitive against the stronger teams."

North opens on April 15 at Waterford

W. Bloomfield runners gear up for season

By TOM BAER

Lee Averill is going to have an extremely busy spring.

But that's the way it's always been for the 20-year coaching veteran at West Bloomfield High School. He coaches the boys' and girls' track teams.

"I keep busy enough so that I don't have too many problems — other than not having enough time in the day to get everything done," said Averill as he prepared for his 16th season at West Bloomfield.

Averill's boys' team has a league title to defend. The Lakers finished first in the Greater Oakland Activities League with a 5-0 dual-meet record. The Lady Lakers, with some outstanding individuals, were beaten only once in dual meets last year.

West Bloomfield's boys' team lost half a dozen top scorers from last year's squad, but some talented trackmen return.

Senior Mark Stinchcomb was the league champion in the pole vault at 12 feet. Senior Darryl Arnett (pole vault, sprints) and junior Dan Kenwell (shot, discus) also return.

Senior Gary Schroeder, a sprinter and quarter mile, returns for his fourth year on the track team. In the distance events, Averill has seniors Tom Montgomery and Pete Roser.

"We just hope we can field a respectable bunch," Averill said. "It's kind of hard to say how we'll do. We've got some people to replace, and we've got some new people we haven't seen in competition yet. We have a lot of people who have to show us something."

THE GOAL championship is "up for grabs," according to Averill. "Milford is always tough, and Bloomfield Hills Andover is going to come up with a good bunch," he said. "Rochester and Clarkston should both have better teams. The league is always pretty balanced."

The WB girls' squad has two standouts in sophomore sprinter Vivian McKenzie and senior hurdler Monique Ozimkowsky.

McKenzie captured top honors last year in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash. Her time of 1:12 was good for fourth place in the Class A state meet. In the 220, she finished fifth at state with a time of 2:57.

Ozimkowsky, a track standout since her freshman year, is an excellent hurdler with times of 14.5 in the 110-yard event and 28.8 in the 220-yard hurdles. Both McKenzie and Ozimkowsky run on the 440 and 880 relays, both of which placed at state last season.

Other returning seniors are Elaine Brenner (hurdler), Jane Perry (440 and mile relay), Kathy Berghoff (relay team) and Cindy Poly (distance events). Averill expects good times from sophomores Barb Allen (880) and Mary Reed (distance).

ROCHESTER HIGH, the GOAL girls' track champion and the only team to beat West Bloomfield in a dual meet last season, looks like a good bet to keep its title.
